Barry Ellsworth, President of Green Plains Renewable Energy Inc., to Speak on the Bill Chippas Show, 6:05 p.m. ET

PORT ST. LUCIE, Fla., Sep 21, 2006 -- Barry Ellsworth, president and chairman of Green Plains Renewable Energy Inc. (the "Company")(NASDAQ: GPRE)(AMEX: GPRE) will be a featured guest on tonight's airing of the Bill Chippas Show. This show airs Thursdays at 6:05 p.m. ET on AM Radio Channel 1590 (WPSL).

Green Plains Renewable Energy Inc. was organized to construct and operate fuel grade ethanol plants. GPRE's nameplate facilities will incorporate the latest process control systems and biotechnology to maximize production yields and quality.

The Bill Chippas Show features 27-year-veteran investment analyst Bill Chippas who is dedicated to making complicated stock market investments simple. He has a unique broadcast presence with a rich baritone voice, quick wit and engaging personality. Chippas is often joined by Mike King who himself is a noted investment analyst whose Princeton Research Inc. of Las Vegas has built a national reputation among stock market investors. The show features guests from companies representing different investment sectors (such as automotive, biotechnology, energy and mining, to name a few) and notable figures from the investment industry. The Bill Chippas Show is broadcast on WPSL Digital 1590 in Port St. Lucie every Thursday evening at 6:05 p.m. ET.
