WSFS Congratulates Cindy Crompton-Barone for Winning the 2015 Ron Shane Human Resources Lifetime Achievement Award

WILMINGTON, Del., Nov. 17, 2015 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- WSFS Financial Corporation (NASDAQ:WSFS), the parent company of WSFS Bank, today announced Cindy Crompton-Barone, PHR, Senior Vice President, Director of Human Capital Services, received the 2015 Ron Shane Human Resources Lifetime Achievement Award. This award, given by The Delaware State Council Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM), is presented each year to the person who best represents a Human Resources Professional in their daily life. Criteria for the award included dedication to the Human Resources profession, professional credentials and accomplishments, professional involvement, and demonstrated HR leadership. Ms. Crompton-Barone was chosen as the individual who best exemplifies these characteristics by a five member committee composed of SHRM Delaware State Council members and a past recipient.

Tricia Clendening, SHRM Delaware State Council Director, presented the award to Ms. Crompton-Barone saying, "She is an individual that dreams, develops, leads, executes and then steps to the side to allow others to bask in the glory of the accomplishments and achievements. I cannot express enough the admiration and respect that I have and our state has for her and her contributions to the HR Profession."

Ms. Crompton-Barone has been a WSFS Associate for 12 years. Under her leadership, WSFS Bank has been voted a Top Workplace for ten consecutive years. WSFS Bank is proud of her achievements and appreciative of the strides she makes for Associates on a daily basis.

"Cindy is the consummate Human Capital practitioner," said Peggy Eddens, Executive Vice President, and Chief Human Capital Officer. "She is a respected expert and a humble leader; Cindy is the hardest working, most fair and caring person I know. She serves her fellow Associates, community and family with dedicated energy and sincere empathy."

Ms. Crompton-Barone is currently a member of Society for Human Resources Management and on the boards of SHRM Delaware State Council and Centreville School.
