On Thursday, July 31, Tyler Technologies, Inc. (NYSE: TYL) will hold a conference call to discuss the company's second quarter 2003 earnings. The teleconference will begin at 10:00 a.m. Central Time and will be hosted by John Yeaman, president and CEO, and Brian Miller, vice president – finance.

During the quarter, Tyler successfully completed its "Dutch Auction" tender offer, which expired on May 12, 2003, by purchasing 5,107,000 shares of its common stock at a price per share of $4.00, or a total cost of $20,428,000. Since August 2002, Tyler has purchased 7,482,200 shares of its common stock.

With a leading market position in the large and growing local government IT sector, Tyler's first quarter 2003 results represented a continuation of positive trends in revenues and earnings. Revenues from continuing operations for the quarter ended March 31, 2003, increased 12% over the first quarter of 2002 to $32.3 million. First quarter 2003 EBITDA, amounted to $27.1 million, or $0.57 per share (including $23.2 million, or $0.49 per share, relating to the gross realized gain on the sale of Tyler's investment in HTE). EBITDA for the first quarter of 2002 amounted to $3.0 million, or $0.06 per share.

To participate in the teleconference, please dial into the call a few minutes before the start time: (800) 932-6407 for U.S. dialers and (706) 679-3884 for international dialers. Please refer to confirmation code 1826337. The conference call can also be accessed (in listen-only mode) by visiting the company's Web site at www.tylertechnologies.com.

We hope you will be able to join us.

Sincerely,

Hala Aly
