Tyler Technologies Named as One of Forbes 200 Best Small Companies

Tyler Technologies (NYSE: TYL) has been ranked #93 in Forbes 2004 listing of the "200 Best Small Companies" in America in the magazine's November 1, 2004 issue. This is Tyler's first appearance on the list.

The article, which states "These little giants are among the toughest competitors in today's corporate America," describes the selection process in which candidates must show consistent profitablity during a five-year period and over the last 12 months. Candidates must also have sales in the $5 million to $750 million range, net profit margins greater than 5% and share prices above $5 as of October 1.

To view the full text of the article, please click here.

Based in Dallas, Tyler Technologies is a leading provider of end-to-end information management solutions and services for local governments. Tyler partners with clients to make local government more accessible to the public, more responsive to needs of citizens, and more efficient in its operations. Tyler's client base includes more than 6,000 local government offices throughout all 50 states, Canada, Puerto Rico and the United Kingdom. More information about Tyler Technologies can be found at www.tylerworks.com.

10/18/2004