Tyler Technologies Signs Contract With Federal Agency for E-Filing Solution

Tyler's first federal contract is valued at approximately $2.1 million

DALLAS – November 23, 2010 – Tyler Technologies, Inc. (NYSE: TYL) announced today the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) has signed an agreement for Tyler's Odyssey® File & Serve. The agreement is valued at approximately $2.1 million and includes software licenses, hosting services and related professional services.

Tyler's Odyssey File & Serve solution will integrate with the SEC's internally developed case management system. This automated, scalable solution enables the SEC to implement a streamlined technology-based electronic filing (e-filing) system. Under the contract, Tyler will also provide a portal to all public non-secured SEC filings and provide instant access to filed pleadings for all interested parties via electronic service.
