Enfora Establishes $17 Million Financing With SVB Silicon Valley Bank

DALLAS, Texas - November 20, 2006 - SVB Silicon Valley Bank, the commercial banking arm of SVB Financial Group (Nasdaq: SIVB), announced today that it recently completed a $17 million financing package for Enfora, Inc. in support of the client's rapid growth. Enfora, Inc. is a leading developer of radio modules for the wireless data communications market.

"This commitment from Silicon Valley Bank along with our recently announced venture funding will allow us the financial resources we need to continue on our extraordinary growth trajectory," said Richard Roberson, senior vice president and CFO, Enfora, Inc. "Silicon Valley Bank is a partner that understands our market as well as our financial needs and has the resources to support us in our continued expansion."

"Enfora's dynamic industry demands that the company can quickly respond to market opportunities," said Robert Sureck, senior relationship manager in SVB Silicon Valley Bank's Dallas office. "The SVB platform was built to meet the needs of entrepreneurial companies from the earliest-stage start-up to a market leader like Enfora, and everything in between. Our experience in working with growth companies of all sizes will allow SVB to help Enfora meet its most ambitious goals now and in the years to come."
