SVB Silicon Valley Bank Provides Financing for Francisco Partners' Acquisition of Dairyland Healthcare Solutions

SANTA CLARA, CALIF. - July 11, 2007 - SVB Silicon Valley Bank, the premier commercial bank for technology and life science companies of all sizes, today announced that it provided $23 million in financing to assist Francisco Partners, one of the world's largest technology-focused private equity investment firms, in its acquisition of Dairyland Healthcare Solutions. Dairyland is a leading provider of comprehensive information systems to community hospitals and health care systems nationwide.

The financing is evidence of SVB Silicon Valley Bank's growing activity in the technology buyout arena and its ability to and provide structured debt and banking solutions to private equity firms.

"We're proud to work with Francisco Partners. This is the second time we've helped them execute a sizeable buyout in the last three months," said Brian Sherer, managing director at SVB Silicon Valley Bank. "SVB has been working with venture-backed companies over the last 25 years, our deep relationships and experience with the VC community continues to translate well in the private equity arena."
