Paradigm Solutions Secures A $12.5 Million Line of Credit With SVB Silicon Valley Bank

ROCKVILLE, Maryland — April 12, 2007 — Paradigm Holdings, Inc. (OTCBB:PDHO) (Paradigm), a provider of comprehensive information technology and business solutions for government enterprises, announced today it has secured a $12.5 million loan from SVB Silicon Valley Bank. The financing, which closed on March 13, 2007, will be used for working capital and to support Paradigm's growth plans. SVB Silicon Valley Bank is the commercial banking arm of SVB Financial Group (Nasdaq: SIVB).

“As we continue to execute our growth strategy, focusing on the federal government IT solutions marketplace, we need a partner that not only understands our business but is also committed to supporting our growth trajectory — Silicon Valley Bank meets these requirements and is the right partner for us now and into the future,” said Peter B. LaMontagne, President and CEO of Paradigm.

“We are pleased to begin this new relationship with Paradigm,” said Sean Stone, senior relationship manager in SVB Silicon Valley Bank's Northern Virginia office. “Our experience in working with technology companies at all stages will allow SVB to support Paradigm in meeting its most ambitious goals now and in the years to come.” About Paradigm Holdings, Inc.
