

WEX INC.

AUDIT COMMITTEE

CHARTER

A. Purpose

The purpose of the Audit Committee is to assist the Board of Directors' oversight of:

- the integrity of the Company's financial statements;
- the Company's compliance with legal and regulatory requirements;
- the independent registered public accounting firm's qualifications and independence; and
- the performance of the Company's internal audit function and independent registered public accounting firm;
- and to prepare an audit committee report as required by the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") to be included in the Company's annual proxy statement.

B. Structure and Membership

1. Number. Except as otherwise permitted by the applicable rules of the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE), the Audit Committee shall consist of at least three members of the Board of Directors.
2. Independence. Except as otherwise permitted by the applicable rules of the NYSE, each member of the Audit Committee shall be independent as defined by such rules and Rule 10A-3(b)(1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act").
3. Financial Literacy. Each member of the Audit Committee must be financially literate, as such qualification is interpreted by the Board of Directors in its business judgment, or must become financially literate within a reasonable period of time after his or her appointment to the Audit Committee. At least one member of the Audit Committee must have accounting or related financial management expertise, as the Board of Directors interprets such qualification in its business judgment. Unless otherwise determined by the Board of Directors (in which case disclosure of such determination shall be made in the Company's annual report filed with the SEC), at least one member of the Audit Committee shall be an "audit committee financial expert" (as defined by applicable SEC rules).
4. Chair. Unless the Board of Directors elects a Chair of the Audit Committee, the Audit Committee shall elect a Chair by majority vote.

5. Compensation. The compensation of Audit Committee members shall be as determined by the Board of Directors. No member of the Audit Committee may receive, directly or indirectly, any consulting, advisory or other compensatory fee from the Company or any of its subsidiaries, other than fees paid in his or her capacity as a member of the Board of Directors or a committee of the Board.
6. Selection and Removal. Members of the Audit Committee shall be appointed by the Board of Directors, upon the recommendation of the Corporate Governance Committee. Unless otherwise determined by the Board (in which case disclosure of such determination shall be made in accordance with applicable NYSE rules), no member of the Audit Committee may serve on the audit committee of more than two other public companies. The Board of Directors may remove members of the Audit Committee from such committee, with or without cause.

C. Authority and Responsibilities

General

The Audit Committee shall discharge its responsibilities, and shall assess the information provided by the Company's management and the independent registered public accounting firm, in accordance with its business judgment. Management is responsible for the preparation, presentation, and integrity of the Company's financial statements, for the appropriateness of the accounting principles and reporting policies that are used by the Company and for establishing and maintaining adequate internal control over financial reporting. The independent registered public accounting firm is responsible for auditing the Company's financial statements and the Company's internal control over financial reporting and for reviewing the Company's unaudited interim financial statements. The authority and responsibilities set forth in this Charter do not reflect or create any duty or obligation of the Audit Committee to plan or conduct any audits, to determine or certify that the Company's financial statements are complete, accurate, fairly presented, or in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles or applicable law, or to guarantee the independent registered public accounting firm's reports.

Oversight of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

1. Selection. The Audit Committee shall be directly responsible for appointing, evaluating, retaining and, when necessary, terminating the engagement of the independent registered public accounting firm. The Audit Committee may, in its discretion, seek stockholder ratification of the independent registered public accounting firm it appoints. Whenever there will be a change in the audit engagement partner, whether due to scheduled rotation under auditor independence rules or otherwise, the Audit Committee shall be involved in the process for evaluating the new audit engagement partner.

2. Independence. At least annually, the Audit Committee shall assess the independent registered public accounting firm's independence. In connection with this assessment, the Audit Committee shall obtain and review a report by the independent registered public accounting firm describing all relationships between the independent registered public accounting firm and the Company, including the written disclosures and letter from the independent registered public accounting firm required by applicable requirements of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (the "PCAOB") regarding the registered public accounting firm's communications with the Audit Committee concerning independence. The Audit Committee shall engage in an active dialogue with the independent registered public accounting firm concerning any disclosed relationships or services that might impact the objectivity and independence of the independent registered public accounting firm.
3. Quality-Control Report. At least annually, the Audit Committee shall obtain and review a report by the independent registered public accounting firm describing:
 - the firm's internal quality-control procedures; and
 - any material issues raised by the most recent internal quality-control review, or peer review, of the firm, or by any inquiry or investigation by governmental or professional authorities, within the preceding five years, respecting one or more independent audits carried out by the firm, and any steps taken to deal with any such issues.
4. Compensation. The Audit Committee shall be directly responsible for setting the compensation of the independent registered public accounting firm. The Audit Committee is empowered, without further action by the Board of Directors, to cause the Company to pay the compensation of the independent registered public accounting firm established by the Audit Committee.
5. Preapproval of Services. The Audit Committee shall preapprove all audit services to be provided to the Company, whether provided by the independent registered public accounting firm or other auditors and all other permitted services (review, attest and non-audit) to be provided to the Company by the independent registered public accounting firm; provided, however, that de minimis permitted non-audit services may instead be approved in accordance with applicable NYSE and SEC rules. The Company's independent registered public accounting firm is not authorized to provide any prohibited non-audit services (as defined in Rule 2-01(c)(4) of Regulation S-X) to the Company. The Chairman of the Audit Committee has the authority to preapprove any permitted services on behalf of the Audit Committee and shall report such approval to the full Audit Committee at the next scheduled meeting of the Audit Committee.
6. Oversight. The independent registered public accounting firm shall report directly to the Audit Committee, and the Audit Committee shall be directly responsible for oversight of the work of the independent registered public accounting firm, including resolution of disagreements between Company management and the independent registered public accounting firm regarding financial reporting. In connection with its oversight role, the Audit Committee shall, from time to time as appropriate:

- receive and consider the reports and other communications required to be made by the independent registered public accounting firm regarding:
 - critical accounting policies and practices;
 - alternative treatments within generally accepted accounting principles for policies and practices related to material items that have been discussed with Company management, including ramifications of the use of such alternative disclosures and treatments, and the treatment preferred by the independent registered public accounting firm;
 - other material written communications between the independent registered public accounting firm and Company management; and
 - all other matters required to be communicated by the independent registered public accounting firm to the Audit Committee by the applicable requirements of the PCAOB.
- review with the independent registered public accounting firm:
 - any audit problems or difficulties the independent registered public accounting firm encountered in the course of the audit work and management's response, including any restrictions on the scope of the independent registered public accounting firm's activities or on access to requested information and any significant disagreements with management;
 - major issues as to the adequacy of the Company's internal controls and any special audit steps adopted in light of material control deficiencies;
 - analyses prepared by management and/or the independent registered public accounting firm setting forth significant financial reporting issues and judgments made in connection with the preparation of the financial statements, including analyses of the effects of alternative GAAP methods on the financial statements;
 - any recent SEC comments on the Company's SEC reports, including in particular any unresolved or future-compliance comments;

- accounting for unusual transactions; and
- the effect of regulatory and accounting initiatives, as well as off-balance sheet structures, on the financial statements of the Company.

Audited Financial Statements

7. Review and Discussion. The Audit Committee shall meet to review and discuss with the Company's management and independent registered public accounting firm the Company's audited financial statements, including reviewing the Company's specific disclosures under "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations," and the matters required to be discussed by the applicable requirements of the PCAOB and SEC.
8. Recommendation to Board Regarding Financial Statements. The Audit Committee shall consider whether it will recommend to the Board of Directors that the Company's audited financial statements be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K.
9. Audit Committee Report. The Audit Committee shall prepare an annual committee report for inclusion where necessary in the proxy statement of the Company relating to its annual meeting of security holders.

Review of Other Financial Disclosures

10. Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm Review of Interim Financial Statements. The Audit Committee shall direct the independent registered public accounting firm to use its best efforts to perform all reviews of interim financial information prior to disclosure by the Company of such information and to discuss promptly with the Audit Committee and the Chief Financial Officer any matters identified in connection with the independent registered public accounting firm's review of interim financial information which are required to be discussed by applicable auditing standards. The Audit Committee shall direct management to advise the Audit Committee in the event that the Company proposes to disclose interim financial information prior to completion of the independent registered public accounting firm's review of interim financial information.
11. Earnings Release and Other Financial Information. The Audit Committee shall discuss generally the type and presentation of information to be disclosed in the Company's earnings press releases, as well as financial information and earnings guidance provided to analysts, rating agencies and others.
12. Quarterly Financial Statements. The Audit Committee shall meet to review and discuss with the Company's management and independent registered public accounting firm the Company's quarterly financial statements, including reviewing the Company's specific disclosures under "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations."

Controls and Procedures

13. Oversight. The Audit Committee shall coordinate the Board of Directors' oversight of the Company's internal control over financial reporting, disclosure controls and procedures and code of business conduct and ethics. The Audit Committee shall receive and review the reports of the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer required by Rule 13a- 14 of the Exchange Act. Throughout the year, the Audit Committee shall monitor that action is taken by management to remediate any material weaknesses or significant deficiencies in a timely manner.
14. Internal Audit Function. The Audit Committee shall coordinate the Board of Directors' oversight and approval of the performance of the Company's internal audit function. This will include an annual review of the internal audit charter, independence and scope of responsibilities. In addition, the Audit Committee will annually review, in coordination with the CFO review of the finance function, the performance and effectiveness of the internal audit function and performance of the Head of Internal Audit. Furthermore, the Audit Committee will annually review and pre-approve the Company's annual internal audit budget and plan, including the scope, timing and staffing for the internal audit plan.

The Audit Committee shall review how the Company's internal audit function coordinates with the External Auditors and make inquiries of the Company's internal auditors as to any significant accounting exposures and management's responses thereto. As desired, the Audit Committee will review any matters with the Company's internal auditors that are also reviewed separately with either the External Auditors or management under this charter.

Furthermore, the Audit Committee will meet with the Company's internal auditor to:

- review reports prepared for the Committee by the Company's internal auditors, including reports regarding significant findings by the Company's internal audit staff and the response of management to the findings;
- periodically review the status of the pre-approved internal audit plan, including any proposed adjustments;
- review any significant substantiated allegations of unethical behavior or fraudulent activities by Company employees related to any business practices, actions or inactions, including, without limitation, internal controls, financial accounting or reporting matters; and

- assess whether the scope of the Company's internal audit program has been substantially completed, including whether problems were encountered and, if so, management's response.

15. Risk Management. The Audit Committee shall discuss the Company's policies with respect to risk assessment and risk management, including guidelines and policies to govern the process by which the Company's exposure to risk is handled and the Company's enterprise risk management program.
16. Legal and Regulatory Compliance. The Audit Committee shall periodically discuss with the Chief Legal Officer and the Chief Risk and Compliance Officer, as applicable, (i) any legal matters that may have a material impact on the Company's financial statements, accounting policies, compliance with applicable laws and regulations and (ii) any material reports, notices or inquiries received from regulators or governmental agencies. The Audit Committee shall have direct communication with the Chief Legal Officer and Chief Risk and Compliance Officer, as needed.
17. Hiring Policies. The Audit Committee shall establish policies regarding the hiring of employees or former employees of the Company's independent registered public accounting firms.
18. Procedures for Complaints. The Audit Committee shall establish procedures for (i) the receipt, retention and treatment of complaints received by the Company regarding accounting, internal accounting controls or auditing matters; and (ii) the confidential, anonymous submission by employees of the Company of concerns regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters.
19. Evaluation of Financial Management. The Audit Committee shall coordinate with the Leadership Development and Compensation Committee the evaluation of the Company's financial management personnel.
20. Additional Powers. The Audit Committee shall have such other duties as may be delegated from time to time by the Board of Directors.

D. Procedures and Administration

1. Meetings. The Audit Committee shall meet as often as it deems necessary, but no less than six (6) times per year, in order to perform its responsibilities. The Audit Committee may also act by unanimous written consent in lieu of a meeting. The Audit Committee shall periodically meet separately with: (i) the independent registered public accounting firm;

(ii) Company management and (iii) the Company's internal auditors. The Audit Committee shall keep such records of its meetings as it shall deem appropriate.

2. Subcommittees. The Audit Committee may form and delegate authority to one or more subcommittees (including a subcommittee consisting of a single member), as it deems appropriate from time to time under the circumstances. Any decision of a subcommittee to preapprove audit, review, attest or non-audit services shall be presented to the full Audit Committee at its next scheduled meeting.
3. Reports to Board. The Audit Committee shall report regularly to the Board of Directors.
4. Charter. At least annually, the Audit Committee shall review and reassess the adequacy of this Charter and recommend any proposed changes to the Board of Directors for approval.
5. Independent Advisors. The Audit Committee is authorized, without further action by the Board of Directors, to engage such independent legal, accounting and other advisors as it deems necessary or appropriate to carry out its responsibilities. Such independent advisors may be the regular advisors to the Company. The Audit Committee is empowered, without further action by the Board of Directors, to cause the Company to pay the compensation of such advisors as established by the Audit Committee.
6. Investigations. The Audit Committee shall have the authority to conduct or authorize investigations into any matters within the scope of its responsibilities as it shall deem appropriate, including the authority to request any officer, employee or advisor of the Company to meet with the Audit Committee or any advisors engaged by the Audit Committee.
7. Funding. The Audit Committee is empowered, without further action by the Board of Directors, to cause the Company to pay the ordinary administrative expenses of the Audit Committee that are necessary or appropriate in carrying out its duties.
8. Annual Self-Evaluation. At least annually, the Audit Committee shall evaluate its own performance.
