Deanna L. Goodwin Joins Oceaneering's Board of Directors

HOUSTON, Feb. 26, 2018 /PRNewswire/ -- Oceaneering International, Inc. ("Oceaneering") (NYSE:OII) announced today that Deanna L. Goodwin has been elected to its Board of Directors. She has over 24 years of experience in the oil and gas products and services industry with Technip USA, Inc., now TechnipFMC plc, and with Veritas DGC, Inc. Ms. Goodwin holds a Bachelor of Commerce degree from the University of Calgary. She currently serves as a member of the supervisory board of Arcadis NV, a global design, engineering and management consulting company.

Oceaneering's Chairman of the Board, John R. Huff, stated, "We are very pleased to welcome Deanna to Oceaneering's leadership team. Deanna brings extensive experience as an executive officer, particularly with operational and financial knowledge in the oil and gas products and services industry. Her skill set complements Oceaneering's vision for growth, and we look forward to her contributions."

Oceaneering is a global provider of engineered services and products, primarily to the offshore energy industry. Through the use of its applied technology expertise, Oceaneering also serves the defense, entertainment and aerospace industries.
