LOS ANGELES--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- KB Home (NYSE: KBH), one of the largest and most recognized homebuilders in the U.S., has been named to TIME's 2025 list of America's Best Midsize Companies— the only national homebuilder to appear on this list every year since its inception. This recognition is presented by TIME and Statista, a leading provider of market and consumer data, and can be viewed on the TIME website.

"We're honored to once again be named one of America's Best Midsize Companies by TIME," said Jeffrey Mezger, KB Home's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer. "KB Home is the only homebuilder to make the list every year since its inception, and this recognition underscores our enduring commitment to delivering industry-leading customer satisfaction, creating a culture of excellence and driving innovation in sustainability that positively impacts our stakeholders and delivers long-term value."

The recognized companies were identified based on three dimensions and using more than 15 different criteria. TIME considered all companies that operate in the U.S. and generated between $100 million and $10 billion in revenue in 2023 or 2024. The three evaluation criteria were:

- Revenue Growth: Revenue growth data of all relevant companies from internal growth and company databases
- Sustainability Transparency: Environmental, social and governance data among standardized KPIs from
