Part II Organizational Action Attach additional statements if needed. See back of form for additional questions.

14 Describe the organizational action and, if applicable, the date of the action or the date against which shareholders' ownership is measured for the action ▶ On May 22, 2024, NVIDIA Corp. announced a ten-for-one forward stock split of NVIDIA's issued common stock (the "Stock Split"). The Stock Split was effected through an amendment to NVIDIA's Restated Certificate of Incorporation, which resulted in a proportionate increase in the number of shares of authorized common stock. Each record holder of common stock as of the close of market on Thursday, June 6, 2014, received nine additional shares of common stock, distributed after the close of market on Friday, June 7, 2024.

15 Describe the quantitative effect of the organizational action on the basis of the security in the hands of a U.S. taxpayer as an adjustment per share or as a percentage of old basis ▶ The Stock Split is a non-taxable transaction under Internal Revenue Code ("IRC") Section 305(a). As a result of the ten-for-one split, shareholders received nine additional shares for each share owned. In accordance with IRC Section 307(a), each shareholder is required to allocate the aggregate tax basis in his or her shares, held immediately prior to the ten-for-one stock split, among the shares of stock held immediately after the ten-for-one stock split. As a result, the number of shares held by each shareholder was multiplied by ten, but each shareholder's total basis and proportionate interest in the Company remained the same. As such, after the transaction, each shareholder will multiply the basis in each share of stock held before the Stock Split by 10% to determine the basis in each share of stock held after the Stock Split.

16 Describe the calculation of the change in basis and the data that supports the calculation, such as the market values of securities and the valuation dates ▶ We caution that this is not tax advice and is provided only as guidance. Investors should consult their tax advisor regarding this transaction, as further discussed below. A shareholder will multiply the basis in each share held before the Stock Split by 10% to determine the basis, after the Stock Split, in that original share and the additional shares distributed in the Stock Split. The record date for the split was June 6, 2024, and the distribution date was June 7, 2024. The data that supports this calculation is each shareholder's basis immediately before the distribution and the number of shares issued in the distribution.

17 List the applicable Internal Revenue Code section(s) and subsection(s) upon which the tax treatment is based ▶

The applicable Internal Revenue Code sections upon which the tax treatment is based are IRC Section 305(a) and 307(a). Under IRC Section 305(a), the distribution is not taxable to shareholders. Under IRC Section 307(a), each shareholder's basis in his or her old stock must be allocated between the old stock and the new stock that was distributed in the stock split.

18 Can any resulting loss be recognized? ▶ Under current law, for U.S. Federal income tax purposes, there will be no U.S. taxable income, gain or loss recognized by U.S. resident shareholders in connection with the ten-for-one stock split. The laws of jurisdictions other than the United States may impose income taxes on the receipt of additional shares. The information contained herein is being provided pursuant to the requirements of IRC Section 6045B, and includes a general summary regarding the application of certain U.S. federal income tax laws and regulations relating to the effects of the Stock Split. The information contained herein is merely illustrative, does not constitute tax advice, and does not purport to be complete or to describe the consequences that may be applicable to particular categories of shareholders. NVIDIA Corp. does not provide tax advice to its shareholders. All shareholders of NVIDIA Corp. are urged to consult their own tax advisors regarding the particular consequences of the Stock Split to them, including the applicability and effect of all U.S. federal, state, local, and non-U.S. tax laws, in light of their individual circumstances.

19 Provide any other information necessary to implement the adjustment, such as the reportable tax year ▶

The reportable tax year is 2024 for shareholders reporting taxable income on a calendar year basis. For shareholders reporting taxable income on a basis other than calendar year, the reportable year is the shareholder's tax year that includes June 7, 2024.
