The Committee is responsible for developing and implementing the screening process necessary to identify qualified candidates. As a part of its screening process, the Committee shall:

1. evaluate the qualifications of candidates for the Board, in light of the criteria approved by the Board which are as set forth in the Company's corporate governance guidelines;
2. evaluate a candidate's independence from the Company's management and other principal service providers and the effect of any relationships that might impair independence, e.g., business, financial or family relationships with the Company's management or other service providers; and
3. consider candidates proposed by management of the Company, by directors, or by stockholders, in accordance with procedures established by the Committee from time to time.

The Committee may determine, from time to time, the advisability of retaining any search firm or consultant to assist in the identification and evaluation of candidates for membership on the Board. The Committee has the sole authority to retain, at the Company's expense, and terminate any such search firm or consultant, including sole authority to approve the fees to be paid to such firm or consultant and all other retention terms.

On an annual basis, the Committee shall evaluate and make recommendations to the Board concerning the size, structure and composition of the Board and its committees. The Committee shall provide to the full Board the results of its evaluation, together with the Committee's recommendation as to committee membership during the upcoming year, with any recommended changes to such membership to be considered by the Board. In the event of a vacancy on any of the committees of the Board, the Committee shall provide its recommendation regarding a replacement committee member to the full Board.

B. Corporate Governance Function

The Committee shall oversee and administer the Company's corporate governance guidelines, review these guidelines at least once a year, and recommend any changes to the Board.

The Committee shall, from time to time, review the governance structures and procedures of the Company and suggest improvements thereto to the full Board. Such improvements, if adopted by the full Board, shall be incorporated into the corporate governance guidelines. Additionally, the Committee shall monitor and advise as to the compliance by the Board and management with the Company's corporate governance guidelines.

The Committee shall conduct and provide the Board with an annual review of this Charter and the charters of the other committees of the Board and recommend any proposed changes to any such charters to the Board for approval.

The Committee shall conduct this self-evaluation in such manner as it deems appropriate and shall present the results of such self-evaluation to the Board. Additionally, the Committee shall oversee an annual evaluation of the Board, each of the other committees of the Board and management.

D. Related Party Transactions

General

The Board has designated to the Committee the authority to review and approve Related Party Transactions. For purposes of this Charter, a "Related Party Transaction" is a transaction, arrangement or relationship that would require disclosure pursuant to Item 404 of Regulation S-K, or any other transaction between the Company and any other person where the parties' relationship is not arms'-length including, without limitation, any transaction between the Company and (i) any director or executive officer of the Company; (ii) any nominee for election as a director; (iii) any holder of Company securities owning more than 5% of any class of Company stock and (iv) any member of the immediate family of any of the foregoing; provided, however, that the Committee does not need to review and approve compensatory arrangements between the Company and its directors or executive officers if (i) such arrangements are reported pursuant to Item 402 of Regulation S-K or (ii) in the case of arrangements that are not reported because the executive officer is not a named executive officer as defined in Item 402(a)(3) of Regulation S-K, such arrangements are reviewed and approved by the Company's Compensation Committee. Related Party Transactions also includes any material amendment or modification to an existing Related Party Transaction.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, for purposes of this Charter, Related Party Transactions shall not include transactions, arrangements, or relationships between the Company or any of its subsidiaries, on the one hand, and Michael Nieri or any affiliate or associate of Mr. Nieri, on the other hand, such transactions being within the exclusive purview of the Company's Related Party Transactions Committee.

Identification, Oversight, and Reporting

The Committee shall oversee the implementation of a system for identifying, monitoring, measuring, controlling, and reporting Related Party Transactions. In doing so, the Committee shall:

- i. on an ongoing basis, evaluate existing relationships between and among the Company and other businesses and counterparties to ensure that all related parties are continuously identified, potential Related Party Transactions are monitored, and subsequent changes in relationships with counterparties (from non-related to related and vice versa) are captured;
- ii. as necessary, review each approved Related Party Transaction on a periodic basis throughout the duration of the transaction to ensure that the transaction remains in, or is not inconsistent with, the best interests of the Company and its stockholders. The Committee may, in its discretion, engage outside counsel to review certain Related Party Transactions; and
- iii. ensure the accuracy and appropriateness of descriptions of the Company's Related Party Transactions and policies on conflicts of interest or potential conflicts of interest, as required by the rules and regulations of the SEC and/or any securities exchange on which the Company's shares are listed.

Approval

The Committee shall evaluate all Related Party Transactions to ensure that they are transacted on an arm's length basis and in a manner that is fair to the Company, that no corporate or business resources of the Company are misappropriated or misapplied, and to determine any potential reputational risk issues that may arise as a result of or in connection with the transactions.

In evaluating Related Party Transactions, the Committee may take into account the following:

- i. the related party's relationship to the Company and interest in the transaction;
- ii. the material facts of the proposed Related Party Transaction, including the proposed aggregate value of such transaction;
- iii. the benefits to the Company of the proposed Related Party Transaction;
- iv. the availability of other sources of comparable products or services; and
- v. an assessment of whether the proposed Related Party Transaction is on terms and conditions that are comparable to the terms generally available to an unrelated party under similar circumstances.

Upon approval by the Committee of a Related Party Transaction, the chairperson of the Committee shall report such approval to the full Board.

E. Other Responsibilities

The Committee shall also have the following authority and responsibilities:

- To develop and recommend to the Board for approval a succession plan for the Company's Chief Executive Officer and other senior executive officers (the "Succession Plan"), review the Succession Plan periodically with the Company's Chief Executive Officer, develop and evaluate potential candidates for Chief Executive Officer and other senior executive officer positions, and recommend to the Board any changes to and any candidates for succession under the Succession Plan.
