

CHARTER FOR THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE
OF
THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF SANMINA CORPORATION

(as amended and restated on September 14, 2026)

I. PURPOSE

The primary purpose of the Compensation Committee (the “Committee”) of the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Sanmina Corporation (the “Company”) shall be to oversee and approve compensation for the Company’s Officers (as defined below), as required by applicable law and subject to the provisions of this Charter. The Committee, on behalf of the Board, shall also oversee the corporate compensation and benefits policies that are intended to create a direct relationship between pay levels, corporate performance and return to shareholders.

II. COMMITTEE MEMBERSHIP AND ORGANIZATION

- A. All members of the Committee will be appointed by the Board on the recommendation of the Nominating and Governance Committee and shall serve at the discretion of the Board.
- B. The Committee shall consist of no fewer than two (2) members. All of the members of the Committee shall meet (i) the independence requirements of the listing standards of the NASDAQ Global Select Stock Market and (ii) the non-employee director definition of Rule 16b-3 promulgated under Section 16 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”).
- C. The Board shall choose a Chair of the Committee, who shall prepare the agenda for and preside at each meeting of the Committee.

III. COMMITTEE RESPONSIBILITIES AND AUTHORITY:

- A. The Committee shall review and approve all compensation payable to the “officers” of the Company, as such term is defined under Section 16 of the Exchange Act and the rules promulgated thereunder (“Officers”), including without limitation: (i) annual base salaries, (ii) all bonus plans under which bonuses may become payable to Officers, including formulas, annual bonus target amounts, performance criteria for earning bonuses and payouts and the extent of achievement thereunder, (iii) all equity compensation, including stock options, restricted stock awards and (iv) all other benefits, perquisites and compensatory payments. The Committee shall also review and approve all offer letters, employment, severance, change-in-control, retirement and deferred compensation agreements and plans proposed to be entered into between the Company and any Officer and, subject to the terms of such agreements and plans, amend, modify, interpret, ratify or terminate such agreements and plans and awards made thereunder. The Chief Executive Officer may be present during meetings at which the compensation of any Officer is discussed, but shall not be present during any Committee deliberations or voting with respect to his or her compensation. Material decisions regarding compensation to be provided to the Chief Executive Officer shall be reported to the full Board. The Committee shall also review the compensation payable to members of senior management who do not satisfy the definition of Officer hereunder but who report directly to the Chief Executive Officer and other senior members of management.

- B. In determining the amount, form and terms of Officer compensation, the Committee shall consider each Officer's performance in light of Company goals and objectives relevant to executive compensation, competitive market data pertaining to executive compensation at comparable companies and such other factors as it shall deem relevant.
- C. The Committee will oversee and advise management regarding the Company's overall compensation philosophy and compensation practices with respect to employees other than Officers and the extent to which the Company's compensation plans, programs and arrangements may create risks for the Company, taken as a whole.
- D. The Committee shall administer, within the authority delegated by the Board, the Company's stock option plans, employee stock purchase plans and other equity incentive plans as may be approved by the Board from time to time (collectively, the "Plans"). In its administration of the Plans, the Committee may (i) grant stock options, restricted stock awards or other equity incentive awards to individuals eligible for such grants, (ii) approve vesting terms, which may be time-based or performance-based, (iii) amend such stock options, restricted stock awards and other equity incentive awards and (iv) accelerate the vesting of such awards, in all cases as provided in the Plans. The Committee may delegate its authority hereunder to a subcommittee or to one or more members of management as it determines to be appropriate and as permitted by applicable law and the terms of the Plans.

- E. The Committee shall review and make recommendations to the Board regarding the amendment of or adoption of new Plans, including amendments to increase the number of shares of Company common stock reserved for issuance under such Plans.
- F. The Committee shall oversee the Company's Deferred Compensation Plans Committee which administers the Company's United States qualified and non-qualified retirement and deferred compensation plans for employees, certain former employees and non-employee directors (the "Deferred Compensation Plans"), with the power to, among other things, to (1) appoint and remove members of such committee, (2) approve, and approve changes to, such committee's charter and (3) approve changes to the Deferred Compensation Plans for which the Deferred Compensation Plans Committee does not have authority to approve.
- G. The Committee shall review the Company's talent planning process and materials at least annually.
- H. The Committee shall review and discuss the Compensation Discussion and Analysis section of the Company's proxy statement for its annual meeting of stockholders with management and shall make a recommendation to the Board whether such CD&A should be included in the proxy statement.
- I. The Committee shall oversee the Company's compliance with Securities and Exchange Commission rules and regulations regarding stockholder approval of certain executive compensation matters, including advisory votes on executive compensation and the frequency of such votes.
- J. The Committee shall review and reassess the adequacy of this Charter annually and recommend any proposed changes to the Board for approval.
- K. The Committee shall have the authority, in its sole discretion, to retain or obtain the advice of compensation consultants, legal counsel and other advisors to assist the Committee in the performance of its duties hereunder and who shall be chosen only after taking into consideration factors relevant to adviser independence set forth in NASDAQ Listing Rule 5605(d)(3). All such advisors shall be independent from the Company as reasonably determined by the Committee. The Committee shall have direct responsibility for the appointment, compensation and oversight of the work of compensation advisors. The Committee shall exercise its own judgment in fulfilling its duties hereunder with no obligation to implement or act consistently with the advice or recommendations of any compensation consultants, legal counsel or other advisors that it retains. The Committee shall be entitled to sufficient funding from the Company to pay the fees of the consultants, counsel and other advisors that it retains to assist it in performing its duties hereunder.

- L. The Committee shall establish and oversee compliance with stock ownership guidelines for the Officers and such other officers as it determines.
- M. The Committee shall develop, approve and cause to be enforced to the extent necessary and appropriate compensation clawback policies covering Officers and such other officers or employees and containing such terms as it determines to be advisable or required by applicable law.
- N. The Committee shall perform such other functions or duties as may be requested by the Board or legislated by outside governing agencies from time to time.

IV. MEETINGS

The Committee will meet at such times, and with such frequency, as it shall determine necessary or appropriate for it to fulfill its responsibilities under this Charter, but in any case no fewer than four (4) times per calendar year.

V. MINUTES

The Committee will maintain written minutes of its meetings, which minutes will be filed with the minutes of the meetings of the Board.

VI. REPORTS TO THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Chair of the Committee shall report to the Board the matters reviewed and actions taken by the Committee at each regular Board meeting.

VII. COMPENSATION

Members of the Committee shall receive such fees, if any, for their service as Committee members as may be determined by the Board of Directors or the Nominating and Governance Committee.
