Such factors include, among others, the risk that the strategies, initiatives and expectations described in this presentation are not achieved on a timely basis or at all, the risks and hazards inherent in the mining business (including risks inherent in developing large-scale mining projects, environmental hazards, industrial accidents, weather, or geologically related conditions), changes in the market prices of gold, silver, zinc, and lead, and a sustained lower price or higher treatment and refining charge environment, the uncertainties inherent in Coeur's production, exploratory and developmental activities, including risks relating to permitting and regulatory delays (including the impact of government shutdowns), ground conditions, grade variability, any future labor disputes, or work stoppages, the uncertainties inherent in the estimation of mineral reserves and resources, changes that could result from Coeur's future acquisition of new mining properties or businesses, the loss or insolvency of any third-party smelter to which Coeur markets its production, the potential effects of the COVID-19 pandemic, including impacts to the availability of our workforce, continued access to financing sources, government orders that may require temporary suspension of operations at one or more of our sites and effects on our suppliers or the refiners and smelters to whom the Company markets its production, the effects of environmental and other governmental regulations and government shut-downs, the risks inherent in the ownership or operation of or investment in mining properties or businesses in foreign countries, Coeur's ability to raise additional financing necessary to conduct its business, make payments or refinance its debt as well as other uncertainties and risk factors set out in filings made from time to time with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission, and the Canadian securities regulators, including, without limitation, Coeur's most recent reports on Forms 10-K and 10-Q. Christopher Pascoe, Coeur's Director, Technical Services and a qualified person under Canadian National Instrument 43-101, reviewed and approved the scientific and technical information concerning Coeur's mineral projects in this presentation. Mineral resources are in addition to mineral reserves and do not have demonstrated economic viability. Inferred mineral resources are considered too speculative geologically to have the economic considerations applied to them that would enable them to be considered for estimation of mineral reserves, and there is no certainty that the inferred mineral resources will be realized. For a description of the key assumptions, parameters and methods used to estimate mineral reserves and resources, as well as data verification procedures and a general discussion of the extent to which the estimates may be affected by any known environmental, permitting, legal, title, taxation, socio-political, marketing or other relevant factors, Canadian investors should see the Technical Reports for each of Coeur's properties as filed on SEDAR at www.sedar.com.

Cautionary Note to U.S. Investors - The United States Securities and Exchange Commission permits U.S. mining companies, in their filings with the SEC, to disclose only those mineral deposits that a company can economically and legally extract or produce. We may use certain terms in public disclosures, such as "measured," "indicated," "inferred" and "resources," that are recognized by Canadian regulations, but that SEC guidelines generally prohibit U.S. registered companies from including in their filings with the SEC. U.S. investors are urged to consider closely the disclosure in our Form 10-K which may be secured from us, or from the SEC's website at http://www.sec.gov.

Non-U.S. GAAP Measures - We supplement the reporting of our financial information determined under United States generally accepted accounting principles (U.S. GAAP) with certain non-U.S. GAAP financial measures, including adjusted net income (loss), operating cash flow excluding changes in working capital, adjusted EBITDA, adjusted EBITDA margin, total leverage, net leverage, free cash flow and adjusted costs applicable to sales per ounce/pound. We believe that these adjusted measures provide meaningful information to assist management, investors and analysts in understanding our financial results and assessing our prospects for future performance. We believe these adjusted financial measures are important indicators of our recurring operations because they exclude items that may not be indicative of, or are unrelated to our core operating results, and provide a better baseline for analyzing trends in our underlying businesses. We believe adjusted net income (loss), adjusted EBITDA, adjusted EBITDA margin, total leverage, net leverage, free cash flow and adjusted costs applicable to sales per ounce/pound are important measures in assessing the Company's overall financial performance. This presentation does not represent an offer of any securities for sale.

This presentation contains certain information or data prepared by third parties. Coeur has not verified the assumptions made or accuracy of the third-party information or data. There can be no assurance that this information or data is indicative of the future performance of Coeur. Coeur does not intend to update or otherwise revise this information or data to reflect circumstances existing since their preparation or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events, even in the event that any or all of the underlying assumptions are shown to be in error.

Coeur's Capital Allocation Framework

COEUR MINING

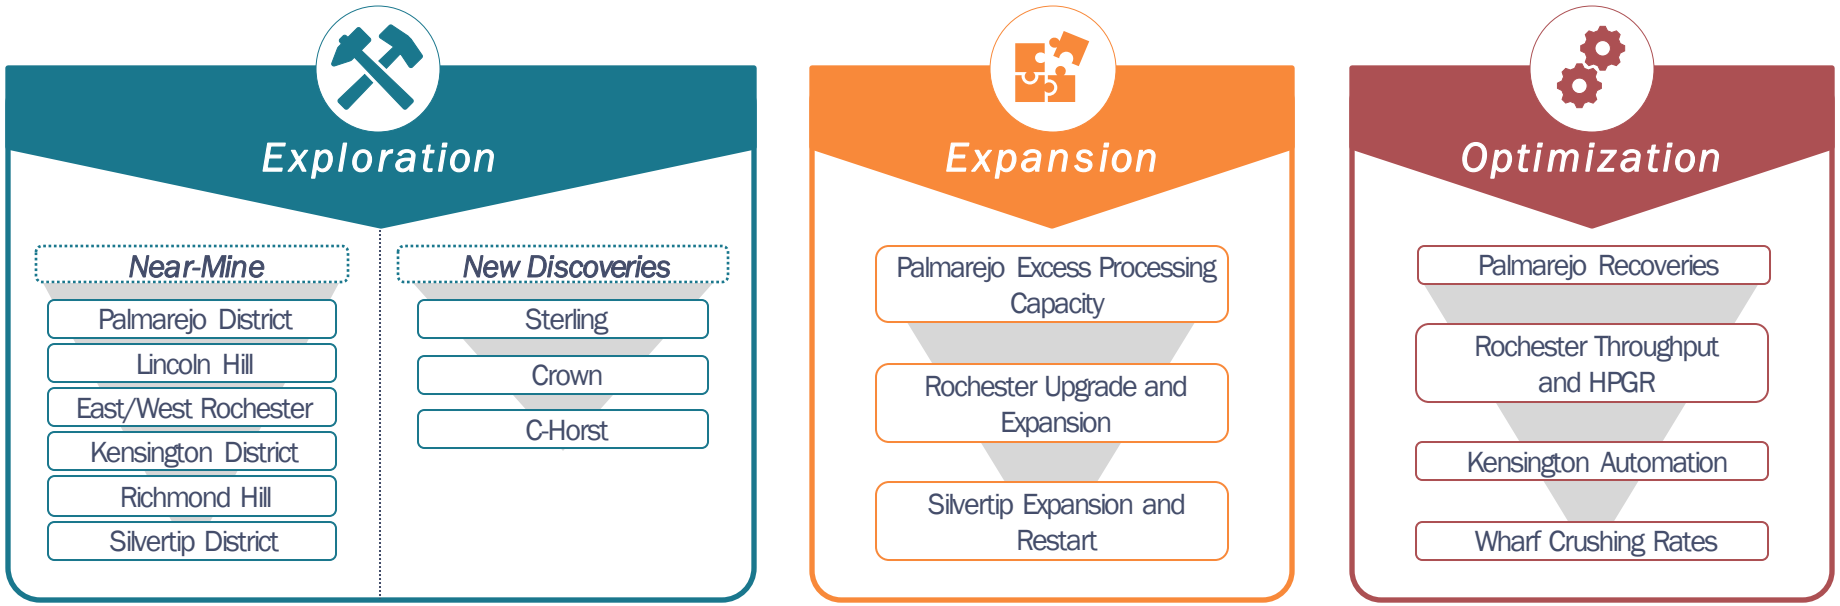

Mining is capital intensive and requires a disciplined approach to capital allocation with a view toward long-term reserve replacement and growth

Investment	Illustrative Return	Key Benefits	Key Considerations
Safety/Environment/ Sustainability	–	✓ Reflects the Company's values ✓ Mitigates risk for stakeholders ✓ Establishes and sustains social license
Asset Optimization/ Enhancements	25% +	✓ Highest returns ✓ Quickest impact ✓ Low capital intensity ✓ Lowest risk	× Finite opportunity set
Brownfield Exploration	20% +	✓ High success / lowest risk exploration ✓ Low average discovery cost ✓ Quick payback given existing infrastructure	× Returns dependent on specific deposit × All deposits eventually come to an end
Opportunistic M&A	15% +	✓ Opportunity to meaningfully impact company ✓ Scale and liquidity can be differentiators	× Limited number of opportunities meet criteria × Requires significant organizational commitment × Challenging social dynamics
6% - 10% estimated cost of capital
Greenfield Exploration	Can vary widely	✓ Potential to create substantial value from new discoveries	× Low success rate × Requires long-term, sustained financial and organizational commitment
Debt Repayment	5% - 6%	✓ Eliminates/reduces interest expense ✓ Improves balance sheet flexibility ✓ Mitigates downside metal price risk	× Low ROI × Reduces cash liquidity levels × Bond buybacks can be expensive
Dividends/ Repurchases	–	✓ Reflects Board and management confidence in long-term outlook ✓ Provides discipline ✓ Offers opportunity to differentiate among peers	× Industry's cyclicality and capital intensity × Not a key driver for most investors × Limited under indenture and credit agreement

Multiple High-Impact Organic Growth Opportunities

COEUR MINING

Coeur has multiple high-impact exploration, expansion and optimization opportunities embedded in its portfolio, which it plans to methodically pursue by prioritizing investments based the Company's capital allocation framework

- Pursuing a higher standard
- Executing largest exploration program in Company history
- Allocating capital according to Company's framework
- Aligning organizational structure and incentive compensation
- Measuring success based on actual results
- Striving to achieve higher returns, longer mine lives and margin expansion

Nevada-Based Exploration Investment Opportunities

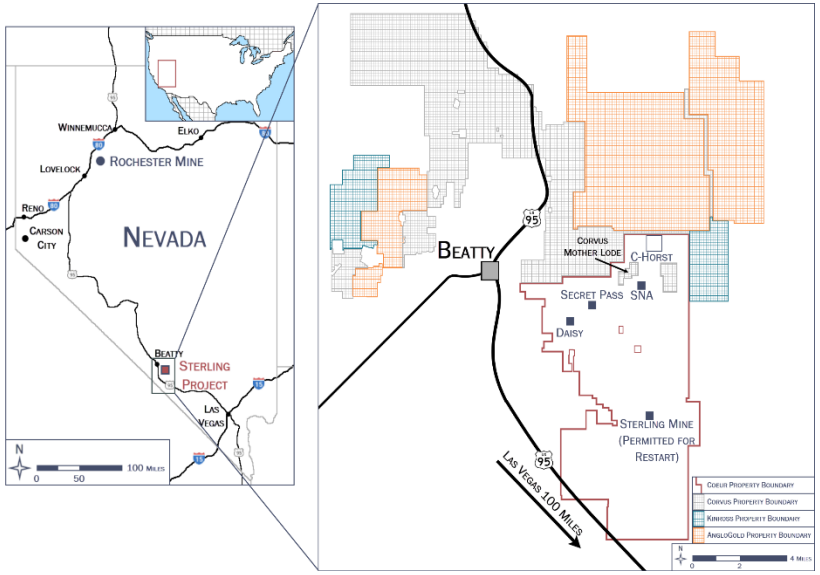

Coeur is uniquely positioned to build out its organic growth portfolio in the U.S., specifically in Nevada – a top mining jurisdiction. The Company believes investing in these opportunities will drive long-term value for stockholders

Northern Nevada

- Significant potential to further grow reserves and leverage Rochester's existing infrastructure
- East Rochester represents potential for significant higher-grade addition to current reserves and resources
- Acquired property package adjacent to Rochester in late 2018 for ~$19 million
- Total land position of over 40,300 acres

Southern Nevada

- Acquired in late 2018 containing multiple gold deposits
- ~35,500 net acres in southern Nevada near existing infrastructure
- New discovery results (e.g., C-Horst) by Coeur adjacent to other new gold discoveries
- Future potential sources of low cost, long-life open pit gold production

Rochester: Expansion Represents Key Near-Term Catalyst

Coeur is advancing efforts to expand Rochester under Plan of Operations Amendment 11 ("POA 11"), which is expected to reposition the mine as a cornerstone asset and unlock significant value for stockholders

High-Level Project Timeline

- 2018 ✓ Start X-Pit expansion incorporating HPGR
- 2019 ✓ Commission first HPGR and advance engineering
- 2020 ✓ Receive ROD[1] and begin construction on expansion
- 2021 Complete phase I of stage VI leach pad in 2H
- 2022/2023 Advance and commission new expansion infrastructure
- 2023 New expansion infrastructure in full production

Key Highlights of Expansion

- Top-tier mining jurisdiction — Nevada and U.S. NOLs
- Low technical execution risk (11th expansion over 35 years) — Open pit, heap leach
- Accelerated silver recoveries utilizing HPGR technology — 70%/2 yrs. vs. 60%/20 yrs.
- Largest U.S.-based primary silver mine — Post-expansion

At current gold and silver prices, Rochester is expected to generate at least $100 million of annual free cash flow[2] post-expansion

(1) Record of Decision.
(2) Free cash flow is defined as cash flow from operating activities less capital expenditures and gold production royalty payments.

Coeur began initial construction activities of early-stage earthworks and project-specific infrastructure for POA 11 in August 2020. Major construction projects are scheduled to begin in early 2021 and be largely completed by late 2022

(1) Includes ancillary facilities.

The Company plans to file an updated technical report for Rochester in late 2020, incorporating a rescoped mine plan as well as additional engineering work and exploration results

Value Proposition

- Successful Near-Mine Exploration
- \+ Economies of Scale
- \+ HPGR Crusher Impact on Silver Recoveries
- = Higher Returns
- Fundamental Step-Change for Coeur

Facilitates Multiple Stockholder Priorities

- Higher overall returns on invested capital
- Sustained, strong free cash flow[1]
- Further de-leveraging opportunities
- Leading, low-risk exposure to precious metals prices
- Funding of other high-quality growth opportunities
- Potential to return excess capital over the long term

Funding Strategy

Cash on Hand	• Cash on balance sheet • Opportunistic monetization of strategic investments (e.g., Metalla)
Internally Generated Cash Flow	• Expect strong cash flow generation during construction period – Operating cash flow from Rochester – Free cash flow[1] from other operations
Existing Debt Capacity	• Revolving credit facility • Equipment and finance leases
Opportunistic Hedging	• Utilizing zero-cost collars on gold – Targeting up to 50% of expected gold production through 2022

HPGR Crushing

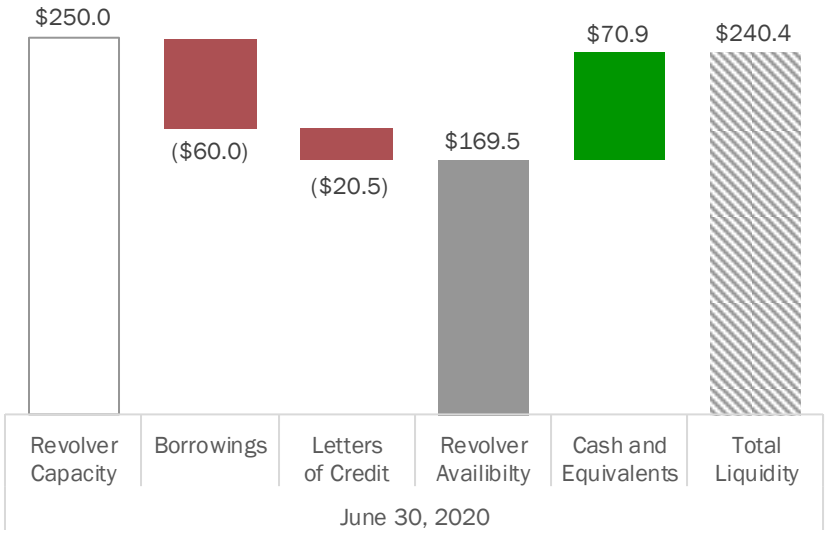

HPGR creates micro-fractures, breaking silica encapsulation, causing higher silver exposure

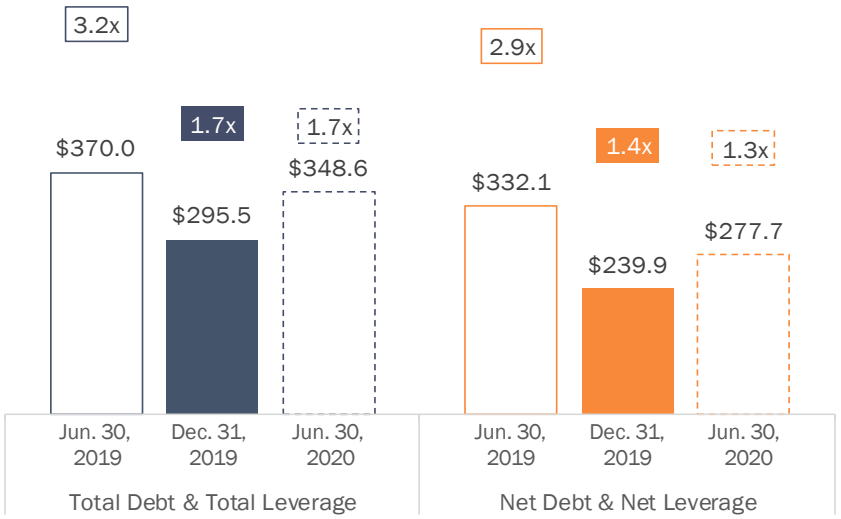

(1) Free cash flow is defined as cash flow from operating activities less capital expenditures and gold production royalty payments.

Review of HPGR Technology

HPGR technology is relatively new to precious metals mining, although it has been proven in processing other materials. The implementation of HPGR at Rochester is expected to improve silver recoveries and lower operating costs

HPGR Schematic[1]

Selected Commentary

- Feed material is subjected to high compressive force exerted by the floating roll, which is regulated by hydraulic pistons
- Counter rotating rolls draw in a bed of material, which is crushed via inter-particle comminution
- Creates micro-fractures in crushed material, allowing cyanide to flow more freely
  - Increases silver recoveries when compared to other crushers

Key Advantages

- Low operational and maintenance costs due in large part to limited moving parts
- Limited downtime for wear part replacement
- Comparatively higher comminution efficiency
- Accommodates greater mineral variability

Notes to 2019 mineral reserves and resources:

(1) Effective December 31, 2019.

(2) Assumed metal prices for Mineral Reserves were $17.00 per ounce of silver, $1,350 per ounce of gold, $1.15 per pound zinc, $0.95 per pound lead.

(3) Assumed metal prices for estimated Mineral Resources were $20.00 per ounce of silver, $1,500 per ounce of gold, $1.30 per pound zinc, $1.05 per pound lead, except Lincoln Hill and Wilco at $1,350 per ounce gold and $22.00 per ounce silver, and Sterling at $1,200 per ounce of gold.

(4) Mineral Resources are in addition to Mineral Reserves and do not have demonstrated economic viability. Inferred Mineral Resources are considered too speculative geologically to have the economic considerations applied to them that would enable them to be considered for estimation of Mineral Reserves, and there is no certainty that the Inferred Mineral Resources will be realized. The preliminary economic assessment for the re-scoped mine plan at Kensington is preliminary in nature and includes Inferred Mineral Resources, and does not have as high a level of certainty as a plan that was based solely on proven and probable reserves and there is no certainty that the results from the preliminary economic assessment will be realized.

(5) Rounding of tons and ounces, as required by reporting guidelines, may result in apparent differences between tons, grade, and contained metal content.

(6) For details on the estimation of mineral resources and reserves, including the key assumptions, parameters and methods used to estimate the Mineral Resources and Mineral Reserves, Canadian investors should refer to the NI 43-101 Technical Reports for Coeur's properties on file at www.sedar.com.

Notes to 2015 mineral reserves and resources:

(1) Effective December 31, 2015.

(2) Assumed metal prices for estimated mineral reserves were $17.50 per ounce of silver and $1,250 per ounce of gold, except for lower 76 underground deposits at Palmarejo at $15.50 per ounce of silver and $1,150 per ounce of gold, and Wharf at $1,275 per ounce of gold.

(3) Mineral resources are in addition to mineral reserves and do not have demonstrated economic viability. Inferred mineral resources are considered too speculative geologically to have the economic considerations applied to them that would enable them to be considered for estimation of mineral reserves, and there is no certainty that the inferred mineral resources will be realized.

(4) Rounding of tons and ounces, as required by reporting guidelines, may result in apparent differences between tons, grade, and contained metal content.

(5) For details on the estimation of mineral resources and reserves, including the key assumptions, parameters and methods used to estimate the Mineral Resources and Mineral Reserves, Canadian investors should refer to the NI 43-101 Technical Reports for Coeur's properties on file at www.sedar.com.
