MetLife Appoints Two Experienced Leaders to Board of Directors

2026-02-24

NEW YORK--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- MetLife, Inc. (NYSE: MET) today announced that Dan Glaser and Michelle Seitz were elected to its Board of Directors (the "Board"), effective immediately. Both leaders bring significant leadership and business experience to their roles.

MetLife today announced that Dan Glaser and Michelle Seitz were elected to its Board of Directors, effective immediately.

Glaser, currently an operating partner at the private investment firm CD&R, has held senior positions in commercial insurance and insurance brokerage for more than 40 years, including serving for a decade as president and CEO of Marsh McLennan (MMC). He was also president and chief operating officer of Willis Risk Solutions and held senior roles at AIG, including leading its U.K. and Ireland operations. For 10 years, Glaser served as chairman of the U.S. Federal Advisory Committee on Insurance.

Seitz brings more than 30 years of investment management experience to the Board, most recently serving as chair and CEO of Russell Investments and CEO of investment bank, William Blair, before that. She is the founder and CEO of MeydenVest Partners LLC, a strategic advisory firm providing capital and counsel to high potential companies. Seitz also currently serves as an independent director of MSCI Inc. and Sana Biotechnology, Inc.

"We are pleased to welcome Michelle and Dan to MetLife's Board of Directors," said R. Glenn Hubbard, chairman of MetLife, Inc. "Together, they bring deep leadership experience and industry expertise that will further enable MetLife to deliver for its shareholders and all stakeholders."

"Michelle and Dan embody the kind of strategic leadership, global perspective, and established expertise that will help guide MetLife in our New Frontier strategy,” said Michel Khalaf, MetLife President and CEO. “Dan’s decades of experience shaping the insurance industry and Michelle’s proven track record in investment management make them exceptional additions to our Board.”

New board member biographies:

Dan Glaser is a veteran insurance executive with more than 40 years of global leadership experience across the commercial insurance and brokerage sectors. He is currently an operating partner at the private investment firm CD&R. He served for a decade as president and CEO of Marsh McLennan (MMC) and held senior roles at MMC, including chairman and CEO of Marsh, interim CEO of Mercer, and group president and chief operating officer. He also held senior roles at Willis Risk Solutions and AIG, leading businesses across the U.S., Europe, and the Middle East. Glaser also chaired the U.S. Federal Advisory Committee on Insurance for a decade and was appointed an honorary Most Excellent Officer of the Order of the British Empire (OBE) in recognition for contributions to U.K.–U.S. trade and investment. Glaser holds a bachelor’s degree from Ohio Wesleyan University and completed the Advanced Management Program at Harvard Business School.

Michelle Seitz is a global business and investment management leader with more than three decades of experience transforming and scaling complex financial organizations. She served as chair and CEO of Russell Investments and CEO of William Blair, following a career spanning leadership roles across major global investment platforms. She is the founder and CEO of MeydenVest Partners LLC and serves as an independent director of MSCI Inc., Sana Biotechnology, and the Fred Hutch Cancer Center. Seitz is also recognized among the industry’s most influential leaders by Barron’s and American Banker. She holds a Bachelor of Science in Accounting from Indiana University’s Kelley School of Business and is a Chartered Financial Analyst.
