WSFS Welcomes Kevin L. Thompson, MBA, CPA as Chief Financial Officer

WILMINGTON, Del., Nov. 12, 2015 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- WSFS Financial Corporation (NASDAQ:WSFS), the parent company of WSFS Bank, today announced that Kevin L. Thompson will join the company as Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer effective December 7, 2015.

"I am excited to welcome Kevin to the WSFS Bank leadership team," said Mark A. Turner, President and CEO of WSFS Bank. "Kevin's deep skill set and professional background align with WSFS's commitment to high performance, disciplined growth, innovation and best practices."

Mr. Thompson most recently served as Senior Vice President in Corporate Finance at Zions Bancorporation and prior to that served as Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer of American Express Centurion Bank. Prior to joining American Express Centurion Bank, Mr. Thompson relocated to Buenos Aires, Argentina to serve as the Latin American Controller for AgReserves Inc.

While at Zions, Amex, AgReserves and other previous jobs, Kevin gained broad and diverse experience in finance, treasury, asset and liability management, accounting, auditing, budgeting and forecasting, systems implementation, capital and risk management, process improvement, M&A and stress testing.

"I am very pleased and honored to be joining a company with such a rich history and a tradition of excellence," said Kevin L. Thompson. "The bank's strategy, culture and continued pursuit of high performance affords me a great opportunity to serve the organization and to play a meaningful role in the company's future success."

A Salt Lake City, Utah, native, Mr. Thompson is a 1998 graduate of Brigham Young University where he was named a Trustee's Scholar. He earned his MBA from Brigham Young University in 2002 and was named an MBA Department Scholar. Mr. Thompson is a Certified Public Accountant, Six Sigma certified and fluent in Spanish and Portuguese.

Mr. Thompson is married and the father of two sons. He and his family look forward to relocating and making the Delaware Valley their home.
