CODE OF CONDUCT

A Message from the CEO

GREG HICKS
PRESIDENT AND CEO,
CANADIAN TIRE CORPORATION, LTD.

For more than a century, Canadians have trusted us. This trust was instilled by our founders, A.J. and J.W. Billes, who believed in striving always to make things better for their customers, communities, and employees. Today, Canadians trust us not only to have the products they want and need but also to act and make decisions consistent with our Brand Purpose – that We Are Here to Make Life in Canada Better.

We know trust is one of our most precious assets. As the foundation of Canadians' emotional connection with our brand, it is up to all of us to protect, maintain, and grow trust. We do this by embracing our Brand Purpose and Core Values while behaving according to our Code of Conduct. By acting with honesty, integrity, and respect, we can reinforce trust and deepen the emotional connection all Canadians – including you – have with our brand.

Our world continues to change at an accelerating rate, and with that comes new challenges, opportunities, and risks. As members of the CTC team, we all represent this iconic Canadian company and must take personal responsibility for stewarding its legacy into the next 100 years. Please read this document thoroughly, as it provides critical information and resources regarding ethical conduct.

Thank you for building trust and making life in Canada better for our customers, communities, and each other.

Best,

SCOPE

The Canadian Tire Corporation, Limited (“CTC”) Code of Conduct (the “Code”) describes the standards of conduct required of Employees (full-time, part-time and temporary), Directors and Independent Contractors of CTC and its subsidiaries. The Code is your first point of reference if you are facing an ethical situation and need guidance on what steps to take. If there is something in this Code that you do not understand, or if you require additional guidance, you can ask your Manager, Business Unit Executive or the Triangle Ethics Office (TEO) for advice. The Glossary at the end of this document contains definitions of key terms, along with a list of Related Policies.

TO WHOM DOES IT APPLY

The Code is applicable to all Employees and Directors and Independent Contractors while conducting business on behalf of, or for CTC.

The Code does not apply to Dealers and franchise owners or their respective Employees, where requirements on ethical conduct are detailed in contractual agreements.

All suppliers conducting business with, or on behalf of CTC, must adhere to the Supplier Code of Conduct.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF THE CODE

An annual acknowledgement and confirmation that the Code has been read must be provided by all Employees, Directors and Independent Contractors.

COMPLIANCE WITH THE CODE

Employees will be required to complete periodic training on the Code of Conduct. Disciplinary action will be taken for non-compliance with the Code. Breaches of the Code should be reported as described in “Reporting”.

CONSEQUENCES FOR FAILING TO COMPLY

All Code violations will be treated seriously and appropriate disciplinary action will be taken where necessary. This action may include, but is not limited to, training, coaching, written warnings and termination of employment.

Introduction

ROLES & ACCOUNTABILITIES

EMPLOYEES

New CTC Employees will be provided with a copy of the Code and must acknowledge that they have received and read it. Employees are required to confirm compliance with the Code on an annual basis, ask questions when unclear about their responsibilities or the appropriateness of a particular action, and report any actual or potential breach of this Code immediately.

MANAGERS

Managers have additional responsibilities to be aware of and communicate applicable laws, regulatory requirements and internal policies, procedures and processes, and to manage and supervise Employees so that the law, regulatory requirements, this Code and other internal policies, procedures and processes are followed.

Managers must also respond to questions from Employees, seek guidance if they are uncertain of the answer, and report any actual or potential breach of the Code.

EXECUTIVE MANAGEMENT AND THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Chief Executive Officer, the Chief Corporate Officer and the Board of Directors have additional responsibilities.

The Chief Executive Officer has overall responsibility for enacting and publicizing the Code so that it is followed throughout the organization. The CEO also has the duty to report on compliance with this Code annually to the Board of Directors.

The Board of Directors is responsible for reviewing and approving the content of this Code, including the authorization of any changes.

These roles and responsibilities are summarized in a table on the following page.

Introduction

THE CANADIAN TIRE COMMITMENTS

Our Commitments reflect our values and form the foundation for how we go about business and how we interact with internal and external stakeholders. Living up to our Commitments is an important part of meeting our Company goals, safeguarding our reputation and maintaining customer trust.

Commitment 1

WE TREAT OTHERS AS WE WOULD LIKE TO BE TREATED

Commitment 2

WE SAFEGUARD OUR COMPANY ASSETS, INFORMATION AND REPUTATION

Commitment 3

WE CONDUCT OUR BUSINESS HONESTLY AND WITH INTEGRITY

Commitment 4

WE CONTRIBUTE TO THE COMMUNITIES IN WHICH WE OPERATE

Commitment 1

WE TREAT OTHERS AS WE WOULD LIKE TO BE TREATED

An inclusive work environment is one that respects and promotes equal opportunity and is free from discrimination.

As an equal opportunity employer, discrimination of any kind, abuse, harassment, bullying or any form of disrespectful or inappropriate behavior towards our Employees, suppliers, customers or others will not be tolerated. All Employees are expected to treat others with respect and professionalism.

Harassment, including sexual harassment, is a form of discrimination. Harassment means any conduct, comment or gesture that is inappropriate and likely to:

Reasonably cause offence or humiliation to any employee or customer

Reasonably be perceived as placing a condition of a discriminatory nature on employment or employment opportunities such as training or promotion

EXAMPLES OF DISCRIMINATION AND HARASSMENT

Sending an email with sexually suggestive comments

Spreading false or malicious rumours about a team member

Causing or threatening physical injury to another

Not selecting a candidate because of their age

WORKPLACE HEALTH AND SAFETY

CTC will provide a healthy, safe workplace for its Employees in accordance with the applicable local laws and regulations.

Workplace safety is a collective responsibility and all Employees should follow health and safety procedures detailed as part of Business Unit procedures and under CTC's Occupational Health & Safety Policy. Any safety violations are to be reported pursuant to the requirements of this Policy.

Commitment 1

WE TREAT OTHERS AS WE WOULD LIKE TO BE TREATED

RESPECT IN THE WORKPLACE

DRUG, ALCOHOL AND CANNABIS CONSUMPTION

The possession, solicitation or use of illegal drugs, or being under the influence of any impairing drugs while at work is prohibited and will not be tolerated. Being under the influence of alcohol, cannabis or similar substances that would impair your ability to carry out duties at work or drinking alcohol or using such substances on CTC property is forbidden.

Employees of legal drinking age may consume alcoholic beverages at CTC-sponsored events if the consumption of alcohol is approved in advance by a Business Unit Executive or the senior individual sponsoring the event.

TREATING OUR CUSTOMERS RIGHT

CTC values the trust our customers and Dealers have placed in CTC. Employees must undertake their activities in a customer-centric manner and strive to provide exceptional service. Customer complaints will be investigated promptly.

PRODUCT SAFETY

All products sold at CTC must meet safety and quality standards under applicable laws and regulations. Our large network of suppliers means we have to make sure they adhere to product health and safety requirements. Employees with responsibilities for health and safety standards for products must take steps to ensure that they comply with these requirements.

FAIR HOURS AND WAGES

CTC will comply with applicable laws and regulations on appropriate wages and working hours covering the following key areas:

Rest breaks

Days of rest

Overtime pay

Minimum wage requirements

Hours for minors and child labour laws

CTC will manage pay and working hours requirements under Human Resources policies.

Commitment 2

WE SAFEGUARD OUR COMPANY ASSETS, INFORMATION
AND REPUTATION

BRAND AND REPUTATION

COMMUNICATING WITH THE PUBLIC

All Employees who are invited to participate in a speaking engagement or panel discussion at an external conference, seminar or workshop must receive approval from the Business Unit Executive and Head of Corporate Communications prior to accepting the invitation.

All Employees who provide inputs for, prepare and/or disseminate public disclosures (for example the Annual Report) have a legal and ethical duty to ensure that the disclosure is full, fair, accurate, timely, and understandable.

Employees should not communicate with the public through public channels such as Social Media as part of their CTC employment. Only designated spokespeople are permitted to disclose non-public information or material about CTC to media, suppliers, competitors, investors, and/or customers.

External requests for information, for example from the media, must be directed to our Media Hotline (mediainquiries@cantire.com or 416-480-8453).

Please refer to CTC's Employee Social Media Guidelines for more information.

Commitment 2

WE SAFEGUARD OUR COMPANY ASSETS, INFORMATION
AND REPUTATION

AUTHORIZED PERSONS

Only the following spokespersons, or persons they designate, are authorized to speak on behalf of CTC, unless otherwise permitted:

The Chairman of the Board

The Chief Executive Officer

The Chief Financial Officer

Head of Corporate Communications

Head of Investor Relations

USING COMPANY E-MAIL

When using Company e-mail, we should consider the following guiding principles:

E-mail must be written in a businesslike manner and be free of obscene, harassing, threatening or otherwise offensive language.

E-mail communications should be professional and reflect the business standards of CTC.

Protect the privacy and security of all personal information.

All efforts should be made to protect restricted and confidential information.

Please refer to CTC's Email Management Standard for more information.

Commitment 2

WE SAFEGUARD OUR COMPANY ASSETS, INFORMATION
AND REPUTATION

CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

CYBER SECURITY AND INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

It is the responsibility of every employee to protect personal and Company information. We must protect information, physical (such as paper) and electronic (such as email, customer data) in accordance with applicable laws and regulations including standards in our Cyber Security Policy. Employees should consider the following guiding principles when dealing with personal and Company information.

Dispose of physical information in confidential shredding bins

Lock and secure confidential information

Do not attach unauthorized personal devices to CTC's network and do not download CTC data onto removable storage devices such as USB and Flash drives – unless you are approved to do so by your Manager

Do not forward CTC data to personal email accounts

Return CTC property on termination of employment, including cell phones, laptops and security badges

Do not open email attachments or pop-ups from unknown or suspicious sources

Do not share 'trade secrets' outside of CTC

Commitment 2

WE SAFEGUARD OUR COMPANY ASSETS, INFORMATION
AND REPUTATION

PRIVACY AND INFORMATION MANAGEMENT

Personal information about customers, Employees, and suppliers must be collected and processed in accordance with applicable privacy laws and regulations.

Access information for business purposes only

Only store personal and business data for as long as needed

Be aware of information classifications within CTC including highly sensitive data such as medical information

Familiarize yourself with CTC's privacy policy and procedures

Refer to CTC's Cyber Security Policy, Privacy Policy and Employee Privacy Policy for further guidance.

EXAMPLE OF PRIVACY BREACH

Without consent, a Manager told his entire team about a team member's long term medical condition during a period of extended sick leave.

Commitment 3

WE CONDUCT OUR BUSINESS HONESTLY AND WITH INTEGRITY

FINANCIAL REPORTING

REPORTING INTEGRITY AND RELIABILITY OF BUSINESS TRANSACTIONS

CTC is required under laws and regulations and generally accepted accounting principles to keep books, records and accounts that accurately reflect all transactions and to have in place an adequate system of internal accounting and controls.

Activities not in line with CTC's standards on financial reporting:

Improperly accelerating or deferring expenses or revenues to achieve financial results

Maintaining any undisclosed or unrecorded funds, accounts or "off the books" amounts

Establishing improper, misleading, incomplete or fraudulent accounting documentation or financial reporting

Making any payment for purposes other than those described in the documents supporting the payment

Submitting or approving any expense report where the employee knows or suspects that any portion of the underlying expenses were not incurred, are not accurate or are not in compliance with CTC's expense policies

Signing any documents believed to be inaccurate or untruthful

EXAMPLES OF FINANCIAL REPORTING BREACH

Due to a challenging quarter for retail sales, a Manager asks his direct report to adjust performance figures to improve the financial outlook.

A large invoice is received for services from a CTC supplier. In a bid to make CTC's financial position look better, the Manager withholds the invoice for a period of time.

Commitment 3

WE CONDUCT OUR BUSINESS HONESTLY AND WITH INTEGRITY

ILLEGAL ACTIVITIES

INSIDER TRADING

Trading in (buying or selling) CTC or related company stocks or other securities on the basis of material, non-public information or inside information is illegal and strictly prohibited.

Inside information is any material, non-public information that could reasonably be expected to affect the value of an investment and is likely to be considered important when making an investment decision.

TIPPING

Tipping which involves sharing inside information so others can trade in stocks or other securities is also illegal and prohibited.

If you are aware of inside information about CTC or any other company, including our suppliers, you are prohibited from trading directly or indirectly, or tipping others to trade in stock or other securities of that company.

These same restrictions apply to any person living in your household or who is financially dependent upon you.

Please refer to CTC's Securities Trading and Reporting Corporate Directive for further guidance.

ANTI-MONEY LAUNDERING (AML)

CTC is required to comply with applicable AML laws and regulations. Money laundering is the concealment of the origins of illegally obtained money. CTC requires all Employees to be alert to activities potentially indicative of money laundering, including:

Volume purchases of prepaid products such as gift cards or large cash transactions

A customer or other third party who is reluctant to provide complete information, provides false or suspicious information, or is anxious to avoid reporting or recordkeeping requirements

Unusual domestic or foreign fund transfers that indicate scam activities or fraudulent schemes

Structuring a transaction to avoid reporting requirements, such as conducting multiple transactions below reportable threshold amounts

Commitment 3

WE CONDUCT OUR BUSINESS HONESTLY AND WITH INTEGRITY

COMPETITION

FAIR COMPETITION AND ACQUIRING COMPETITIVE INTELLIGENCE

We are committed to complying with all applicable competition, fair dealing and antitrust laws applicable to CTC. These laws help protect competition and the fair operation of markets while promoting honest sales, advertising and marketing practices.

In doing so, we will thrive as a Company and continue to help our customers enjoy their jobs and joys of life. Further information on applicable laws can be obtained from CTC's Legal team.

We must not manipulate or misrepresent facts and always be protective of confidential information of other parties. Competitive intelligence must only be gained through ethical and legal means.

GENERAL COMPLIANCE WITH LAWS AND REGULATIONS

Every Employee has an obligation to be aware of and to comply with all applicable laws, rules, regulations and Company policies that apply to our business operations, and in particular, those which impact our roles within such business areas.

We operate in many jurisdictions, both domestic and foreign. All Employees and Independent Contractors working on behalf of the Company must know and comply with all laws, regulations and policies applicable in those jurisdictions.

RESPONSIBLE ADVERTISING

The way we present and market our products is key to CTC's success. However, we must do this in a way that is fair and representative of the products and services we offer. We must make sure that advertising and media communications are honest, responsible and fair.

We must not misrepresent product prices, features, and availability and we must clearly state the conditions of offers.

EXAMPLE OF A COMPETITION BREACH

A staff member has a friend who works at one of CTC's competitors. The staff member read recently that the competitor is a potential buyer for a new sportswear company. The staff member promises to buy her friend lunch if she tells her details about the acquisition.

Commitment 3

WE CONDUCT OUR BUSINESS HONESTLY AND WITH INTEGRITY

CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

GENERAL

Personal interests or relationships should not influence one's ability to make honest and ethical business decisions in the best interests of CTC. A conflict of interest can happen when a judgment could be influenced, or might appear to be influenced, by the possibility of personal benefit.

OTHER EMPLOYMENT

Employees must not perform any paid services for a competitor. Employees must not be part of outside business activities which create a conflict of interest with their work at CTC. In practice, this means the outside business activity cannot be similar in nature to your role at CTC, benefit from the use of CTC assets or intellectual property or negatively impact CTC's reputation and brand.

INTERNAL REPORTING

All personal or family relationships, and business interests, that may impact an Employee's ability to make honest and impartial decisions should be disclosed. Efforts to prevent a direct reporting relationship between relatives must be made and discussed with Human Resources in advance.

RELATIONSHIPS WITH SUPPLIERS

Employees should not have social or other relationships with suppliers if the relationship would give the perception that a business influence is being exerted. Relationships with suppliers should be based on fair and lawful business practices.

The selection of suppliers must be made on the basis of objective criteria, including, integrity, quality, price, delivery, product suitability, maintenance of adequate sources of supply, and CTC's purchasing practices and procedures.

Commitment 3

WE CONDUCT OUR BUSINESS HONESTLY AND WITH INTEGRITY

CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

GIFTS AND ENTERTAINMENT

Accepting gifts or other entertainment gratuities (for example, tickets to a sporting event) might be perceived by our customers, suppliers and other Employees as a potential conflict of interest.

Gifts and entertainment gratuities above CAD$200 (or its equivalent in the jurisdiction of the operations) must be politely declined and returned.

There may be circumstances that justify an exception; these must be approved by a Senior Executive.

Attendance at vendor sponsored events (e.g. sporting and cultural events) should be occasional and authorized by a Senior Executive and reported to the TEO.

Gifts of cash or cash equivalents (i.e., vouchers) can never be accepted.

GIFTS TO GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS

There are regulations governing the acceptance of gifts by elected officials and public office holders. Therefore, any gifts to such individuals must be cleared through the Public Affairs team.

Commitment 4

WE CONTRIBUTE TO THE COMMUNITIES IN WHICH WE OPERATE

CHARITIES

GENERAL

CTC takes pride in being a core part of communities in which we operate and is committed to giving back to these communities. Key principles that guide our efforts include:

Supporting Canadian Tire Jumpstart Charities

Supporting the communities in which we operate globally

CHARITABLE DONATIONS

While it is acceptable to solicit support for CTC's charities of choice from our Employees, suppliers and other key stakeholders, Employees are not allowed to solicit support for any other personal charitable activities unless approved by a Business Unit Executive.

Suppliers and business partner decisions regarding charitable support must not influence normal business dealings

Employees must not commit CTC to a charitable donation of any kind without appropriate prior approval

CTC's Donations Policy provides further guidance.

Commitment 4

WE CONTRIBUTE TO THE COMMUNITIES IN WHICH WE OPERATE

POLITICAL ACTIVITY

The Public Affairs team manages all politically-associated activities within CTC and should be contacted in case of any queries regarding planned political activities. Some guiding principles for political activities are detailed below.

Only permitted Employees can represent CTC's interests with elected officials and non-elected public office holders

Business issues requiring contact and/or communication with any level of government, should be discussed and approved by the Public Affairs team

Employees cannot use job titles or Company affiliation in connection with personal political activities

Corporate funds shall not be provided to political organizations

ENVIRONMENT AND SUSTAINABILITY

CTC will conduct business in a socially responsible and ethical manner.

CTC engages in a number of environmental initiatives to avoid the emission of greenhouse gases and help our customers avoid emissions, develop sustainable products and minimize waste. We promote the well-being of workers in our supply chain and the well-being of our customers by, among other things, eliminating and replacing harmful chemicals with better alternatives where possible, and we create an inclusive culture for those who face physical, mental, and social economic barriers.

Employees are expected to be aware of and support CTC sustainability initiatives that apply to their roles and areas of responsibility.

Reporting

OBLIGATION TO REPORT

Employees are expected to bring forward all Code-related concerns. The Code requires all Employees, Directors of CTC and Independent Contractors to report, in good faith, any activity that appears to be in breach of the Code.

Any complaint or concern around the Code of Conduct can be reported to your Manager, your Manager's Manager, or Human Resources representative, Triangle Ethics Office, Senior Vice President Internal Audit, General Counsel, CEO, Chair of the Audit Committee or the Chairman of the Board.

All breaches must be reported to the Triangle Ethics Office (TEO) or the TEO Hotline. Such reporting can be done anonymously.

Reporting

IMMEDIATELY REPORTABLE CRITERIA

Employees may raise concerns regarding ethical conduct that may violate the Code of Conduct through the TEO as detailed on the previous page. However, there are certain types of allegations that must immediately be reported to the TEO.

Providing, offering, promising, requesting, or receiving any improper or unearned benefit (bribery)

Interfering with audits or internal controls

Falsifying, misrepresenting, or destroying financial records, or improperly concealing or altering financial records

Information system hacking

Conduct involving an employee maliciously gaining unauthorized access to company or customer information

Price fixing, market or customer division or allocation, or other anti-competitive practices

Insider trading

Money laundering

INVESTIGATION AND PENALTIES

Investigations of potential violations of the Code are handled confidentially, respectfully, and lawfully.

All Employees are expected to fully cooperate when responding to an investigation or audit, or to inquiries that are conducted by CTC.

WHISTLEBLOWER PROTECTION

Information regarding Employees reporting code violations will, to the extent possible, remain confidential. CTC will not tolerate any retaliation for reports made in good faith.

Employees will not be penalized for inquiring about and/or reporting, in good faith, suspected unethical behavior or for seeking guidance on how to handle Code violations or suspected illegal acts. CTC will not tolerate any retaliation for any such inquiries.
