athletes, five-time Paralympic medalist Hunter Woodhall and Olympic gold medalist Tara Davis-Woodhall. Building on those experiences, Pennymac is proud to formalize and launch the “Welcome Home” program, extending its support to the broader Team USA athlete community.

“Home is my sanctuary; it’s where I reset, and Pennymac understood that,” said Alex Ferreira, 2026 U.S. Olympic freeski halfpipe gold medalist. “They were looking out for me from the start, reaching out directly to make sure I was locked into the best possible rate. Knowing my mortgage is in good hands gave me the peace of mind to focus more on what I care about most - staying 100% dialed in on my goals on and off the mountain.”

Pennymac is now expanding its reach through “Welcome Home”, a new program with the USOPC designed to support the entire Team USA athlete community. As the journey toward the LA28 Olympic and Paralympic Games accelerates over the next two and a half years, Pennymac will continue evolving the program alongside the athletes it serves.

The program is anchored by three core pillars designed to support Team USA athletes throughout the homeownership lifecycle:

- Dedicated Lending Support: Athletes gain access to dedicated home loan experts who understand their distinctive financial profiles.
- Exclusive Home Loan Benefits: The program equips athletes with specialized savings opportunities and comprehensive loan options.
- The Home Team Training Center: Pennymac delivers tailored homeownership content, webinars, and educational tools designed to empower athletes to make confident financial decisions.

The “Welcome Home” program reflects Pennymac’s belief that supporting Team USA athletes extends beyond the field of play. By helping Team USA navigate homeownership with confidence, Pennymac is investing in the people behind the podium and the futures they are building.
