On Thursday, February 27, Tyler Technologies, Inc. (NYSE: TYL) will hold a conference call to discuss the company's fourth quarter and year-end 2002 earnings. The teleconference will begin at 10:30 a.m. Central Time and will be hosted by John Yeaman, president and CEO, and Brian Miller, vice president – finance.

Tyler Technologies is a premier provider of end-to-end information management solutions and services for local governments. Tyler partners with clients to make local government more accessible to the public, more responsive to the needs of citizens, and more efficient in its operations. The company has an installed client base of nearly 6,000 government offices in 49 states, Canada and Puerto Rico.

With a leading market position in the large and growing local government IT sector, Tyler's recent results have shown year-over-year growth and increasing profitability, with EBITDA and earnings per share growing at a substantially greater rate than revenues.

The third quarter of 2002 was Tyler's sixth consecutive profitable quarter and the company's eighth consecutive quarter of year-over-year improvement in operating results. Revenues for the quarter ended September 30, 2002 increased 22% over the third quarter of 2001 to $35 million. For the third quarter of 2002, EBITDA, or earnings from continuing operations before interest, income taxes, depreciation and amortization, increased 45% to $5.1 million, or $0.10 per diluted share, from $3.5 million, or $0.07 per share, for the third quarter of 2001.

To reserve your attendance, please contact Premier Conferencing at (800) 289-0579 and refer to confirmation code 490062. To participate in the teleconference, please dial (719) 457-2600 a few minutes before the start time. The conference call can also be accessed (in listen-only mode) by visiting the company's Web site at www.tylertechnologies.com.

We hope you will be able to join us.

Sincerely,

Ric DeCastro
