TYLER TECHNOLOGIES SIGNS CONTRACT TO PROVIDE ENTERPRISE SOFTWARE FOR CITY OF FORT MYERS, FLORIDA

Contract Valued at More Than $1Million

Dallas, April 1, 2004 -- Tyler Technologies, Inc. (NYSE: TYL) announced today that it has signed a contract to provide the City of Fort Myers, Florida with a full suite of enterprise financial software. The total estimated value of the contract, including software, professional services and support, is more than $1 million.

The InForum Gold software from Tyler's Eden Systems division will help the City manage its financial, payroll and human resource, and citizen services applications. The City will also implement InForum Gold Internet Extensions to enhance its ability to interact with job applicants.

"We are very pleased to continue to expand our presence in Florida with this contract award from the City of Fort Myers," said Gene Jackson, President of Tyler's Eden Systems division. "Our software will enable the City to streamline productivity and increase efficiency by eliminating redundant data entry and manual data manipulation. We expect to have a positive long-term partnership with Fort Myers."

The City of Fort Myers is located on the banks of the Caloosahatchee River in southwest Florida. Fort Myers has a population of more than 48,000 and is the spring training home of the Boston Red Sox.

Based in Dallas, Tyler Technologies is a leading provider of end-to-end information management solutions and services for local governments.
