TYLER TECHNOLOGIES STOCKHOLDERS ELECT DIRECTORS

Two New Independent Directors Join Tyler's Board

Dallas, May 10, 2004 – Tyler Technologies, Inc. (NYSE: TYL) announced today that two new independent directors were elected to its board of directors at the Company's annual meeting of stockholders on May 6, 2004.

Donald R. Brattain and J. Luther King, Jr. join Tyler's board as new directors. Messrs. Brattain and King will each serve on the Audit Committee, which Mr. Brattain will chair. Mr. Brattain will also serve on the Nominating and Governance Committee, and Mr. King will also serve on the Compensation Committee.

G. Stuart Reeves, John M. Yeaman, John S. Marr, Jr., Glenn A. Smith, and Michael D. Richards were all re-elected as directors of Tyler Technologies.

Mr. Brattain is President of Brattain & Associates, LLC, a private investment company located in Minneapolis, Minnesota, that Mr. Brattain founded in 1985. From 1981 until 1988, Mr. Brattain purchased and operated Barefoot Grass Lawn Service Company, which grew from $3.2 million in sales to over $100 million and was sold in 1998.

Mr. King is the Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer and a director of Luther King Capital Management, a registered investment advisory firm located in Fort Worth, Texas, that he founded in 1979. Mr. King also serves as a director of the University of Texas Investment Management Company, a company that manages the endowment assets of the University of Texas system and a portion of the endowment assets of Texas A&M University.

With these additions, Tyler's board of directors has seven members, four of whom Tyler's board has determined to be independent under the rules of the New York Stock Exchange. All board members are elected annually at the Company's stockholders' meeting to one-year terms. Ben T. Morris, a director of Tyler since 2001, did not stand for re-election to Tyler's board in accordance with his firm's policy.
