TYLER TECHNOLOGIES SIGNS CONTRACT TO IMPLEMENT ODYSSEY COURTS SYSTEM IN COLLIN COUNTY, TEXAS

Represents First Client Under Agreement with Texas Conference of Urban Counties

Dallas, April 5, 2006 -- Tyler Technologies, Inc. (NYSE: TYL) announced today that it has entered into a contract to implement Tyler's Odyssey court administration software in Collin County, Texas. Odyssey is Tyler's new generation Web-based court management solution for the state and local government market.

Collin County is a member of the Texas Conference of Urban Counties (Urban Counties) and will adopt the Odyssey system under the recently-signed $12.4 million software license agreement between Tyler and the Urban Counties. Collin County has separately contracted with Tyler for implementation and other professional services in an agreement valued at approximately $1.7 million.

Collin County is home to nearly 700,000 citizens and spreads over 885 square miles of north Texas. Collin County ranks as the eighth most populous county in the state and among the 100 most populous counties in the United States. Located in the Dallas / Fort Worth metroplex, Collin County is one of the fastest growing counties in the nation and includes the cities of Plano, McKinney and Frisco.

"We are extremely pleased to welcome Collin County as a new Odyssey customer," commented Glenn Smith, Executive Vice President of Tyler Technologies. "Collin County is the first Texas county to participate in the Urban Counties Tech Share program for Odyssey court administration. Collin County's leadership reacted quickly to the opportunity to improve the efficiency of its courts, provide better service to the taxpayers, and take advantage of the economic benefit of the Urban Counties Tech Share Program."

Based in Dallas, Tyler Technologies is a leading provider of end-to-end information management solutions and services for local governments. Tyler partners with clients to make local government more accessible to the public, more responsive to needs of citizens, and more efficient. Tyler's client base includes nearly 6,000 local government offices throughout all 50 states, Canada, Puerto Rico and the United Kingdom. Forbes Magazine named Tyler one of the "200 Best Small Companies" in America in 2004.
