

Tyler Technologies Signs Appraisal Contract with the Northeastern Connecticut Council of Governments

Council Chooses Tyler's CLT Appraisal Services

Tyler Technologies, Inc. (NYSE: TYL) has signed a contract with the Northeastern Connecticut Council of Governments (NECCOG) to provide real property appraisal services for Connecticut's northeast regional revaluation. The contract for Tyler's CLT Appraisal Services includes establishing property values for all real property and land parcels, as well as other related services. The regional revaluation program is the first of its kind for the state of Connecticut.

"The member towns of NECCOG are excited about this new program and working with Tyler's CLT Appraisal Services," said John Filchak, NECCOG's executive director. "The monies saved for our towns and the efficiencies gained are impressive and are, we believe, a model for other regions in Connecticut and other states."

The agreement includes reappraisal and revaluation services for the following towns: Ashford, Brooklyn, Canterbury, Eastford, Killingly, Plainfield, Pomfret, Putnam, Sterling, Thompson and Woodstock. The towns of Killingly and Sterling also use Tyler's iasWorld® computer-assisted mass appraisal (CAMA) software.
