

Tyler Technologies Annual Conference to Be Held April 28-May 1, 2013

More than 700 classes available to Tyler clients; many classes eligible for CPE and IAAO credits

DALLAS – March 6, 2013 – Tyler Technologies, Inc. (NYSE: TYL) will hold its annual conference, Tyler Connect, April 28 through May 1 at the Hynes Convention Center in Boston. The conference gives clients the opportunity to attend training sessions, product demonstrations and workshops with other users of Tyler’s Eden, iasWorld®, Incode®, Infinite Visions®, Munis®, Orion, Tyler SIS, Tyler Verify and Versatrans® products. Leadership from EnerGov, Tyler’s most recent acquisition, will also present the latest from Tyler’s Planning, Permitting and Licensing solution.

Many of the more than 700 classes offered at the conference will be eligible for Continuing Professional Education (CPE) credits through the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy (NASBA). Orion and iasWorld attendees can receive International Association of Assessing Officers (IAAO) Recertification Credit for attending sessions and workshops.

“The annual Connect conference is a great opportunity for our clients to learn from like-minded peers, network with those they’ve met on Tyler Community, and learn from Tyler professionals who can share their domain expertise directly with clients in small groups for the most benefit,” said John S. Marr Jr., Tyler’s president and CEO. “Tyler values its clients and the relationships we’ve built. We look forward to the education, networking and information-sharing that will occur at Connect 2013.”

Tyler’s current sponsors for Connect 2013 include ExecuTime™ Software, Selectron Technologies and The J. Paul Company. This year’s event is on pace to be Tyler’s biggest conference to date with more than 2,100 attendees expected.
