Tupelo signs agreement for Tyler's Incode® court case management and Tyler Public Safety solutions

DALLAS –July 30, 2013 –Tyler Technologies, Inc. (NYSE: TYL) has signed an agreement with the city of Tupelo, Miss., for its Incode® court case management and Tyler Public Safety solutions. The city also currently uses Tyler's Munis® enterprise resource planning (ERP) solution.

The city selected Incode and Tyler Public Safety as an integrated solution to aid in processing and decision-making accuracy; public safety data will be integrated with the city's courtroom operations to simplify records sharing from Tupelo Police Department to the Municipal Court.

“Having this new software will help Tupelo Police Department officers identify people faster than by traditional means,” said Tupelo Police Chief Tony Carleton. “This is going to be a very good tool for us. The reporting package is very powerful, yet easy to use.”

Tupelo is Mississippi's seventh most populous city with more than 34,500 residents.
