

Tyler Technologies Signs Orion Tax Collection Software Contract with Johnson County, Kansas

PLANO, Texas – June 26, 2014 – Tyler Technologies, Inc. (NYSE: TYL) has signed an agreement with Johnson County, Kansas, for Tyler’s Orion appraisal and tax software solution to manage tax collections and billing.

“Orion is a proven CAMA and tax solution and Johnson County can rely on our dedicated personnel to implement our solution and see the project through from start to finish,” said Andrew D. Teed, president of Tyler’s Appraisal & Tax Division. “The county is also secure in its software investment because of our perpetual license philosophy, which ensures that our solution will grow with the county without additional licensing fees as its needs change and technology evolves.”

Johnson County is the most populous county in Kansas with approximately 560,000 residents. It is in the southwestern quadrant of the Kansas City metropolitan area. The Kansas Department of Revenue, Property Valuation Division, currently hosts Orion to provide counties access to the browser-based computer-assisted mass appraisal (CAMA) system.
