

Texas Comptroller of Public Accounts Signs Agreement with Tyler Technologies

Organization selects Tyler's Orion computer-assisted mass appraisal software solution

PLANO, Texas – Nov. 20, 2014 – Tyler Technologies, Inc. (NYSE: TYL) has signed an agreement with the Texas Comptroller of Public Accounts (CPA) for Tyler's Orion appraisal and tax software solution. The contract includes licensing for the software's computer-assisted mass appraisal (CAMA) functions, related professional services and support.

Orion is a browser-based, scalable solution employing a SQL database that leverages off-the-shelf Microsoft® operating systems and database management software. The software delivers powerful scalability, extensive availability and flexible deployment options for assessment administration, CAMA and tax billing and collections functions.

The Texas Comptroller's office was originally created by the Texas provisional government in 1835. Susan Combs is the current comptroller and acts as the chief steward of the state's finances, acting as tax collector, chief accountant, chief revenue estimator and chief treasurer.

About Tyler Technologies, Inc.

Tyler Technologies (NYSE: TYL) is a leading provider of end-to-end information management solutions and services for local governments. Tyler partners with clients to empower the public sector — cities, counties, schools and other government entities — to become more efficient, more accessible and more responsive to the needs of citizens. Tyler's client base includes more than 11,000 local government offices in all 50 states, Canada, the Caribbean, the United Kingdom and other international locations. Forbes has named Tyler one of "America's Best Small Companies" seven times and the company has been included four times on the Barron's 400 Index, a measure of the most promising companies in America. More information about Plano-based Tyler Technologies can be found at www.tylertech.com.

###

Contact: Tony Katsulos
Jetstream PR for Tyler Technologies
972-788-9456, ext. 301
katsulos@jetstreampr.com