

Chatham County, Georgia, Chooses ERP Solution from Tyler Technologies

County selects Munis ERP solution to enhance citizen services, reporting capabilities and employee productivity

PLANO, Texas – Dec. 15, 2015 – Tyler Technologies, Inc. (NYSE: TYL) has signed an agreement with Chatham County, Georgia, for Tyler’s Munis® enterprise resource planning (ERP) solution. The agreement includes software licenses, related professional services, maintenance and support.

Chatham County, needing to replace its legacy financial system, conducted a competitive review for a comprehensive, integrated ERP solution that could improve citizen services, employee productivity and decision-making capabilities. The county also wanted a system flexible and scalable enough to keep pace with future growth.

County leaders partnered with Tyler because they value the company’s deep public sector experience. The county also liked how Tyler’s contemporary solutions align with the acumen of the county’s technology savvy employees by offering more automation and modernized processes. As a commercial-off-the-shelf (COTS) solution, Munis provides better operational, reporting and analytical tools than traditional legacy systems.

The county chose core Munis applications, including financial, revenue, content and human resources management. The county will benefit from Tyler’s evergreen perpetual licensing approach that provides regular and significant, yet manageable, software enhancements without an additional relicensing fee, ensuring all systems are the latest technology.

Chatham County, located in southeast Georgia with Savannah as its county seat, has approximately 283,400 residents and 1,600 employees. The county is also currently implementing Tyler’s Odyssey® integrated court case management system and Tyler’s e-filing application, Odyssey eFileGA™. Additionally, the county is implementing Tyler’s iasWorld® appraisal and tax administration software and several integrated solutions, including iasWorld Public Access™, iasWorld Field Mobile™ and iasWorld SmartFile.
