

Tyler Technologies Named to Forbes “Most Innovative Growth Companies 2016” List

Tyler among 25 companies known for investing in innovation

PLANO, Texas – July 7, 2016 – Tyler Technologies, Inc. (NYSE:TYL) was recently named to Forbes’ Most Innovative Growth Companies 2016 list. Tyler was cited by Forbes among 25 companies that investors could expect to be innovative now and in the future

According to Forbes, companies were ranked by their innovation premium, or the difference between their market capitalization and the net present value of cash flows from existing businesses. The difference between them is the bonus given by equity investors on the estimate that the company will continue to generate profitable new growth.

“We are pleased to be recognized by Forbes for our steady growth and innovative business practices,” said John S. Marr Jr., president and chief executive officer of Tyler Technologies. “The Forbes recognition underscores Tyler’s commitment to continued, sustainable investments in technology to ensure our clients have the most advanced solutions essential to local government.”

Tyler Technologies, ranked No. 24 on the “Most Innovative Growth Companies 2016” list, joins other firms that met Forbes’ ranking requirements, including having at least seven years of public financial data, and a market capitalization of between $2 billion and $10 billion. The Forbes list focused on industries known for investing in innovation, including making measurable research-and-development expenditures.
