

Tyler Technologies Named to Three Top Workplace Lists for 2016

PLANO, Texas – Dec. 13, 2016 – Tyler Technologies, Inc. (NYSE:TYL) has been named to three top workplace rankings in Dallas/Fort Worth, Texas; Maine; and Lubbock, Texas, during a year of impressive employee and revenue growth for the company.

“It is fitting that 2016 marked a major milestone for Tyler with 50 years of serving the public sector, and we wouldn’t be a leader in this space without our dedicated employees,” said Robert Sansone, chief human resources officer for Tyler. “We are proud of these three recognitions, which are a testament to the hardworking and innovative employees in all Tyler offices. We’re especially proud that we’ve been able to maintain our company culture and continue to be a desirable place to work while experiencing incredible growth over the past year.”

Tyler was recognized by the following local publications and lists:

- The Dallas Morning News recognized Tyler on its “Top 100 Places to Work 2016” list in the large company category, marking Tyler’s fifth appearance on the list. Tyler was ranked 13th on the list, and was number one among tech companies in the large company category. The city of Plano, Texas, is home to Tyler’s corporate headquarters and its Courts & Justice Division. More than 600 employees work in Plano.
- Tyler was named to Maine Biz’s “Best Places to Work in Maine” list in the large company category. Tyler was ranked 10th on a list of 21 companies, and each of its three Maine locations – Yarmouth, Falmouth and Bangor – were mentioned on the list. Tyler’s ERP & Schools Division is headquartered in Yarmouth, which has nearly 600 employees.
- Citizens of Lubbock, Texas, voted Tyler as the “Best Workplace in Lubbock” this year. Each year, Lubbock residents vote on the “best of” Lubbock in many different categories. Tyler was the single winner of the workplace category for 2016. Roughly 200 employees work in Lubbock, home to Tyler’s Local Government Division.
