

National Online Registries Launches Revamped Insurance Filing Website

Motor Carrier Information Exchange offers brand-new look and feel

ARLINGTON, Va. - National Online Registries, Inc. (NOR), a subsidiary of NIC Inc., announces the launch of its redesigned website for Motor Carrier Information Exchange \(MCInfo\), which allows insurers to easily submit required motor carrier insurance filings directly to participating states quickly and accurately. The website was modernized with state-of-the-art design features to enhance usability and strengthen security.

"MCInfo is updated to take advantage of current technology to deliver a website that looks good, works well, and leverages our extensive experience in data handling," said Laura Johnson, President of NOR. "MCInfo users have responded positively to the change and the value it provides them."

The updated website has a modern, responsive design that is more accessible on phones and tablets and addresses a broader range of user needs. The upgraded platform means faster turnaround time, allowing NOR to more quickly meet the needs of its state government and insurance company users. Targeted service enhancements will allow MCInfo to grow as user needs evolve.

MCInfo is a service that provides greater transparency to motor carrier insurers by facilitating the transmission of insurance filings online and tracking them through the approval process. Last year nearly 500 insurance companies used MCInfo to submit more than 84,000 insurance forms.
