

Tyler Technologies Named a Top Workplace in Troy, Michigan

Tyler ranked on the Detroit Free Press list for the second consecutive year

PLANO, Texas (Nov. 16, 2018) – Tyler Technologies Inc. (NYSE: TYL) has been named a 2018 Top Workplace by the Detroit Free Press in the large company category, which includes companies with 500 or more employees. This is the second time Tyler’s Troy office has been included in the rankings, and the first time in the large company category.

“Tyler is honored to receive this recognition for the second consecutive year,” said Greg Sebastian, president of Tyler’s Public Safety Division. “As we grow our Troy, Michigan, office, we will continue to provide the best environment for all of the talented staff who work hard every day, as well as future employees who join our dedicated team.”

“We’ve had an eventful year in Troy, including the acquisition of local company MobileEyes,” said Kelley Shimansky, chief human resources officer for Tyler. “We pride ourselves on maintaining a strong company culture with outstanding leadership and career opportunities. We will continue to empower our employees and look forward to being included on the Top Workplaces list for many years to come.”

Companies that join the competition for Top Workplaces are evaluated by their employees using a short 24-question survey. Companies are measured on several qualities including company leadership, career opportunities, workplace flexibility, compensation and benefits.

More than 500 employees work in Tyler’s Troy office, home to Tyler’s Public Safety Division, which develops software solutions for police, fire and EMS agencies. The Troy location is also home to the company’s New World™ ERP staff, who provide integrated public administration solutions. Tyler has more than 4,300 employees and 30 offices across the U.S. and Canada.
