

Tyler Technologies Named to the 2019 GovTech 100 List

Tyler recognized for work with government entities for third consecutive year

Tyler Technologies Inc. (NYSE: TYL), the largest company in the nation solely focused on providing software and services to the public sector, has been selected as a GovTech 100 company for 2019.

The annual list is published by Government Technology magazine, a division of e.Republic Inc., and recognizes 100 companies focused on making a difference in state and local government agencies across the United States. This is the third consecutive year Tyler has been selected.

"We are honored to receive this recognition from such a well-respected magazine focusing on the public sector," said Tyler Technologies President and CEO Lynn Moore. "Our goal is to help state and local governments and schools become more efficient and accessible for citizens, which we are able to do through our integrated, mission-critical software. To be recognized for these efforts is truly an honor."

Tyler rolled out its vision for Connected Communities in 2017 and built on that vision in 2018 with the acquisition of government data pioneer Socrata. Tyler has more than 15,000 clients and maintains a 98 percent client retention rate.
