Xperi Announces Receipt of Unsolicited Non-Binding Proposal

2/23/2020

Reiterates Commitment to TiVo Transaction

SAN JOSE, Calif.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Xperi Corporation (Nasdaq: XPER) today announced that it has received an unsolicited, non-binding proposal from Metis Ventures LLC to acquire all of the outstanding equity of Xperi for $23.30 per share in cash.

Xperi had previously announced (on December 19, 2019) that it had entered into a definitive agreement with TiVo Corporation (Nasdaq: TIVO) to combine in an all-stock transaction, pursuant to which, at the close of the transaction, Xperi stockholders would own approximately 46.5% of the combined business, and TiVo stockholders would own approximately 53.5% of the combined business.

After a comprehensive review and discussion of Metis Ventures' proposal conducted in consultation with its financial and legal advisors, Xperi's board of directors has unanimously determined that, based on the current non-binding terms and conditions, as well as lack of information, it is unable to conclude at this time that Metis Ventures' non-binding proposal is reasonably likely to lead to a Superior Proposal under the terms of Xperi's merger agreement with TiVo. Therefore, Xperi will not be engaging in discussions with Metis Ventures and does not intend to make any further comment at this time.

Xperi reiterates its continued support and enthusiasm for its pending transaction with TiVo and its view that the definitive agreement with TiVo remains in the best interests of Xperi and its stockholders. Accordingly, Xperi's board of directors continues to recommend the merger agreement with TiVo to its stockholders. Xperi's board of directors is not modifying or withdrawing its recommendation with respect to the TiVo merger agreement and the merger, or proposing to do so.

Board of Directors
Xperi Corporation
3025 Orchard Parkway
San Jose, California 95134
Ladies and Gentlemen:

We are pleased to submit this proposal (our "Proposal") for Metis Ventures LLC, a Delaware limited liability company ("Metis" or "we"), to acquire 100% of the outstanding equity of Xperi Corporation ("XPER"), for an all-cash consideration of $23.30 per share. Based on the terms outlined below, we believe our Proposal presents an extremely attractive outcome for XPER's stockholders and offers them liquidity in a manner that is both more certain and timely than the current proposed transaction with TiVo Corporation ("TiVo").

We have the utmost respect for XPER's Board of Directors and stockholders and we are impressed by XPER's business. In the process of our review, we also have observed with keen interest the market's varied reaction to XPER's proposed transaction with TiVo, as evidenced by an immediate drop of XPER and TiVo stock. Based on our due diligence, we place great value in XPER's business on a standalone basis and our proposal reflects this value to the XPER stockholders. Our proposal also eliminates the risks and uncertainties of combining XPER with a legacy business, costs and operational distraction associated with integration to establish a combined company that may or may not succeed in achieving the desired liquidity for XPER stockholders. Based on the terms outlined below, we believe our Proposal is an XRAY Superior Proposal, as such term is defined in the Agreement and Plan of Merger and Reorganization, dated as of December 18, 2019 (the "Merger Agreement"), by and among XPER, TiVo, XRAY-TWOLF HoldCo Corporation, XRAY Merger Sub Corporation and TWOLF Merger Sub Corporation (the "TiVo Transaction").

Our Proposal

The following outlines the terms of our Proposal:

Valuation; Transaction Structure. We hereby propose to acquire all of the outstanding equity of XPER for an all-cash consideration of $23.30 per share. Our all-cash per share purchase price is a 33% premium to the 30 trading-day average of XPER's stock price immediately prior to the date of this Proposal and 20% premium to XPER's stock price on February 21, 2020. It is also an 11% premium to XPER's stock price on December 18, 2019, the last trading day prior to the announcement of the TiVo Transaction. Our Proposal provides certainty to XPER's stockholders regarding the per share price they would receive; whereas in the TiVo Transaction, because XPER's stockholders would receive a fixed number of shares of HoldCo (as defined in the Merger Agreement) common stock, the market value of XPER common stock at the time of consummation of the TiVo Transaction may be significantly lower than the price contemplated by XPER at the time of execution of the Merger Agreement.

Financing. Our proposal is not subject to any financing contingency. Metis has readily committed capital with which to consummate the acquisition and pay associated costs and expenses without any need for other financing sources. We attach hereto a letter from Method Investments & Advisory Ltd, a diversified boutique investment firm, evidencing the committed capital. We expect the financing arrangements will be finalized promptly after submission of our Proposal.

Approvals; Conditions. We fully expect our proposed transaction will be completed within the timeframe anticipated for the TiVo Transaction. We have already obtained all necessary corporate approvals to proceed with the transaction. As opposed to our Proposal, the TiVo Transaction has the uncertainty of having to obtain the approval of TiVo's stockholders, required waiting period and approval from the Korea Fair Trade Commission, as well as risks associated with delivery of the tax opinions by counsel to XPER and TiVo.

Resources & Due Diligence Investigation. We are working closely with Mr. Tom Lacey (see "About Metis," below) and have already committed significant internal and external resources, including formally engaging Maplewood Capital, LLC, as our advisor on this matter ("Maplewood") and Morrison & Foerster LLP, as our legal advisor. We anticipate our confirmatory due diligence to be completed expeditiously prior to signing.

Definitive Agreement. We are ready to execute a merger agreement that is substantially the same as the Merger Agreement, except for those changes set forth in our Proposal, including the all-cash consideration. Our legal counsel stands ready to advance the definitive documentation toward final execution promptly.

Superior Proposal

We believe our Proposal is superior for the following reasons:

XPER stockholders would receive a higher purchase price at closing. Our proposed per share purchase price of $23.30 is a 20% premium based on the closing price of XPER on February 21, 2020, and a 33%, premium to the 30 trading-day average of XPER's stock price immediately prior to the date of this Proposal. It is also an 11% premium to XPER's stock price on December 18, 2019, the last trading day prior to the announcement of the TiVo Transaction.

Our Proposal is all cash, which provides immediate, certain and superior value for XPER's stockholders as opposed to the uncertain liquidity associated with the TiVo Transaction.

XPER would have a faster and more certain path to closing a transaction. Our Proposal would be subject to only the vote of XPER's stockholders whereas the TiVo Transaction requires the vote of both the XPER and TiVo stockholders. XPER stockholder approval would be pursuant to a proxy statement filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, which is generally subject to less scrutiny than a Registration Statement on Form S-4 required for the TiVo Transaction.

We would agree to a "hell or high water" covenant related to any required U.S. antitrust approval. Nonetheless, we do not foresee any concerns with receipt of HSR approval for our Proposal.

We do not have any Approval Requirement with Korea Fair Trade Commission. Based on our current diligence, unlike the TiVo Transaction, neither XPER nor Metis would have any filing requirement with the Korea Fair Trade Commission, thereby providing greater deal certainty.

Our all-cash Proposal eliminates the need for tax opinions from Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP and Cooley LLP as closing conditions for the TiVo Transaction, thereby providing greater deal certainty.

We are confident that we can consummate our Proposal faster and with more certainty of completion than the TiVo Transaction and that, it would result in a better outcome for XPER's stockholders. We are prepared to enter into negotiations with you immediately regarding our Proposal and believe we will be in a position to execute a mutually acceptable merger agreement on an expedited timeline.

These forward-looking statements are based on Xperi's and TiVo's current expectations, estimates and projections about the expected date of closing of the proposed transaction and the potential benefits thereof, its business and industry, management's beliefs and certain assumptions made by Xperi and TiVo, all of which are subject to change. In this context, forward-looking statements often address expected future business and financial performance and financial condition, and often contain words such as "expect," "anticipate," "intend," "plan," "believe," "could," "seek," "see," "will," "may," "would," "might," "potentially," "estimate," "continue," "expect," "target," similar expressions or the negatives of these words or other comparable terminology that convey uncertainty of future events or outcomes. All forward-looking statements by their nature address matters that involve risks and uncertainties, many of which are beyond our control, and are not guarantees of future results, such as statements about the consummation of the proposed transaction and the anticipated benefits thereof. These and other forward-looking statements, including the failure to consummate the proposed transaction or to make or take any filing or other action required to consummate the transaction on a timely matter or at all, are not guarantees of future results and are subject to risks, uncertainties and assumptions that could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed in any forward-looking statements. Accordingly, there are or will be important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those indicated in such statements and, therefore, you should not place undue reliance on any such statements and caution must be exercised in relying on forward-looking statements. Important risk factors that may cause such a difference include, but are not limited to: (i) the completion of the proposed transaction on anticipated terms and timing, including obtaining stockholder and regulatory approvals, anticipated tax treatment, unforeseen liabilities, future capital expenditures, revenues, cost savings, expenses, earnings, synergies, economic performance, indebtedness, financial condition, losses, future prospects, business and management strategies for the management, expansion and growth of Holdco's businesses and other conditions to the completion of the transaction; (ii) failure to realize the anticipated benefits of the proposed transaction, including as a result of delay in completing the transaction or integrating the businesses of Xperi and TiVo; (iii) Xperi's ability to implement its business strategy; (iv) pricing trends, including Xperi's and TiVo's ability to achieve economies of scale; (v) potential litigation relating to the proposed transaction that could be instituted against Xperi, TiVo or their respective directors; (vi) the risk that disruptions from the proposed transaction will harm Xperi's or TiVo's business, including current plans and operations; (vii) the ability of Xperi or TiVo to retain and hire key personnel; (viii) potential adverse reactions or changes to business relationships resulting from the announcement or completion of the proposed transaction; (ix) uncertainty as to the long-term value of Holdco common stock; (x) legislative, regulatory and economic developments affecting Xperi's and TiVo's businesses; (xi) general economic and market developments and conditions; (xii) the evolving legal, regulatory and tax regimes under which Xperi and TiVo operate; (xiii) potential business uncertainty, including changes to existing business relationships, during the pendency of the proposed transaction that could affect Xperi's and/or TiVo's financial performance; (xiv) restrictions during the pendency of the proposed transaction that may impact Xperi's or TiVo's ability to pursue certain business opportunities or strategic transactions; (xv) unpredictability and severity of catastrophic events, including, but not limited to, acts of terrorism or outbreak of war or hostilities, as well as Xperi's and TiVo's response to any of the aforementioned factors; (xvi) failure to receive the approval of the stockholders of Xperi and/or TiVo; and (xvii) any plans regarding a potential separation of the combined businesses. These risks, as well as other risks associated with the proposed transaction, are more fully discussed in the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus filed with the SEC in connection with the proposed transaction. While the list of factors presented here, and the list of factors presented in the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus, are considered representative, no such list should be considered to be a complete statement of all potential risks and uncertainties. Unlisted factors may present significant additional obstacles to the realization of forward looking statements. Consequences of material differences in results as compared with those anticipated in the forward-looking statements could include, among other things, business disruption, operational problems, financial loss, legal liability to third parties and similar risks, any of which could have a material adverse effect on Xperi's or TiVo's consolidated financial condition, results of operations, or liquidity.
