Ferguson Completes New Term Loan and Increases Liquidity by $800 Million

10/13/2022

Wokingham, England—October 13, 2022—Ferguson plc (NYSE: FERG; LSE: FERG) today announced a series of financing transactions to increase its liquidity by $800 million. The additional liquidity will be used for general corporate purposes.

The financing transactions include:

1. A new $500 million syndicated three-year bank Term Loan Credit Facility, which matures in October 2025.
2. Increasing our existing Receivables Securitization Facility by $300 million, from $0.8 billion to $1.1 billion, and extending the Facility through October 2025.
3. Increasing our existing Revolving Credit Facility by $250 million, from $1.1 billion to $1.35 billion, which matures in March 2026.
4. Reducing our existing 364-day bilateral Revolving Facility by $250 million, from $500 million to $250 million, which matures in March 2023.

"This additional liquidity demonstrates the continued confidence in our business model and provides additional flexibility to continue to invest in our capital priorities," said Bill Brundage, Ferguson CFO.
