Ferguson named a Best for Vets Employer

2024-01-23

Ferguson has been recognized as a Best for Vets Employer by The Military Times, reflecting our dedication to supporting veterans and their families.

“We are fortunate to have many veterans and members of the military community continue their professional careers at Ferguson,” explained Kevin Murphy, Ferguson’s CEO. “Their unique skill sets, and leadership qualities contribute significantly to our organization’s growth and success. We proudly support our veterans and the broader military community, whose service continually inspires us.”

The Military Times Best for Vets Employers survey is an evaluation of organizations across the country, assessing their military-connected employment programs, benefits and support efforts.

At Ferguson, we prioritize mentorship for veterans transitioning from military service to civilian life. Our tailored training opportunities equip veterans with the skills they need to excel in their roles. We actively foster networks – both within our company and in the broader veteran community. Through our Veterans Business Resource Group (VALOR), we’ve forged national partnerships with organizations like Homes for Our Troops and collaborated with Troopster and The Honor Foundation. Together, we make a tangible difference in the lives of military families.
