Wolseley agrees to buy 22 Burdens sites

11/2/2012

Wolseley plc has agreed to acquire the property, stock and vehicle assets of 22 sites from Burdens Limited, one of the leading suppliers of drainage and civil engineering products in the UK. The sites generated revenue from ongoing business in the 3 months ended 30 September 2012 of approximately £40 million. Consideration is expected to amount to approximately £30 million including goodwill of £5 million. Approximately 600 employees will join the Group.

The sites will be integrated with Wolseley UK's core businesses and Wolseley will have exclusive use of the Burdens name in the UK.

Ian Meakins, Chief Executive of Wolseley said:

"Like our other UK businesses, Burdens has a well established reputation. The acquisition will extend the reach of the Group's successful utilities business in the UK and gain one of the leading positions in the underground drainage sector. We warmly welcome the Burdens staff that are transferring into the Group and look forward to building the pre-eminent brand in this attractive market."
