NOMINATING AND CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

COMMITTEE CHARTER

I. Purpose

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee (the “Committee”) of the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Farmland Partners Inc. (the “Company”) is appointed by the Board to assist the Board in selecting and evaluating nominees for election to the Board and to assist the Board in matters related to corporate governance. All powers of the Committee are subject to the restrictions in the Company’s Second Amended and Restated Bylaws (the “Bylaws”) and by applicable law.

II. Committee Membership

The Committee members shall be appointed by the Board and shall serve until their successors shall be duly elected and qualified or until their earlier resignation or removal. Members may be removed at any time by vote of the Board. Members may resign from the Committee at any time without resigning from the Board.

The Committee will consist of no fewer than two members of the Board. Subject to any applicable exceptions, each member shall meet applicable independence requirements for membership of a Nominating Committee in accordance with listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange (the “NYSE”).

III. Structure and Meetings

The Committee shall conduct its business in accordance with this Charter, the Bylaws and any direction by the Board. The Committee chairperson shall be designated by the Board, or, if it does not do so, the members shall elect a chairperson by a vote of the majority of the full Committee. In the event of a tie vote on any issue, the chairperson’s vote shall decide the issue.

The Committee shall meet when deemed necessary or desirable by the Committee or its chairperson. The Committee shall meet at times and places as determined by its chairperson. Actions may be taken by unanimous written consent. Members may participate in meetings of the Committee by means of conference call or similar communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other. Such participation shall constitute presence in person at such meeting. A majority of the Committee shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. If, however, there are only two members, both members must be present to constitute a quorum.

The Committee chairperson will preside at each meeting. The Committee chairperson, in consultation with the other members, will set the length and agenda for each meeting. The chairperson of the Committee (or other member designated by the chairperson or the Committee in the chairperson’s absence) shall regularly report to the full Board on its proceedings and actions. The Committee will maintain written minutes of its meetings. The minutes will be maintained with the books and records of the Company.

Dated: 10/28/25

As necessary or desirable, the chairperson of the Committee may invite any director, officer or employee of the Company, or other persons whose advice and counsel are sought by the Committee, to be present at meetings of the Committee.

The Committee may form and delegate authority to subcommittees when appropriate. The Board may assign any duties of the Committee outlined in this Charter to another committee of the Board in whole or in part from time to time as the Board may determine subject to applicable laws, regulations and the listing requirements of the NYSE.

IV. Committee Duties and Responsibilities

The duties and responsibilities of the Committee shall include, without limitation, the following:

2. Consider qualifications for Board membership as set forth in Section VII of this Charter.
3. Review and assess the activities and associations of each candidate to ensure that there is no legal impediment, conflict of interest, or other consideration that might hinder or prevent service on the Board. In making its selection, the Committee shall bear in mind that the foremost responsibility of a director of a Company is to represent the interests of the stockholders as a whole.
4. Review and reassess, periodically, the adequacy of this Charter and make recommendations to the Board regarding any revisions to this Charter from time to time as appropriate.
5. Review and reassess, periodically, the adequacy of the Company's Charter and Bylaws and make recommendations to the Board regarding any revisions from time to time as appropriate.

Such review shall include director succession planning, in light of future needs of the Board and Company and application of policies pertaining to tenure on the Board, so as to ensure that Board effectiveness is not diminished during periods of transition.
7. Develop, adopt and oversee a set of corporate governance principles applicable to the Company and the operations of the Board that may include (i) director qualifications, including committee membership qualifications, (ii) director duties and responsibilities, (iii) director access to management and, as necessary and appropriate, independent advisors, (iv) director orientation and continuing education, (v) management succession and (vi) annual performance evaluation of the Board.

8. Develop and adopt policies, practices and disclosures relating to environmental, workplace health and safety, corporate social responsibility, corporate governance and sustainability matters relevant to the Company. Recommend appropriate policies and initiatives to the Board.
9. Develop and adopt other policies and procedures related to corporate governance that the Committee deems appropriate, including, without limitation, a code of business conduct and ethics.
10. Oversee the evaluation of the Board and the process for evaluation of management on an annual basis.
11. Review directors' notice of a substantial change in employment and recommend whether it is appropriate to request such director to offer to resign.
12. Perform an annual evaluation of the Committee's own performance.
13. Review and discuss with management disclosure of the Committee's corporate governance practices, including information regarding the operations of the Committee and other Board committees, director independence and the director nomination process, and to recommend that such disclosure be included in the Company's proxy statement or annual report on Form 10-K, as applicable.
14. Perform such other functions and have such other powers consistent with this Charter, the Bylaws and governing law as the Committee or the Board may deem appropriate.

V. Committee Resources

The Committee shall have the sole authority, to the extent it deems necessary or appropriate, to (a) retain a search firm to be used to identify director candidates, (b) retain other advisors and (c) approve the applicable fees and other terms of such retention. The Company will provide for appropriate funding, as determined by the Committee, for payment of compensation to any search firm or other advisors retained by the Committee.

VI. Consideration of Director Candidates Recommended by Stockholders

It is the policy of the Committee to consider any director candidates recommended by stockholders of the Company in the same manner in which the Committee evaluates other potential nominees, so long as the information regarding director candidates recommended by stockholders is submitted to the Committee in compliance with this Charter and the Bylaws.

VII. Qualifications of Board Candidates

Dated: 10/28/25

There are no specific, minimum qualifications that the Committee shall require of a Committee-recommended nominee for a position on the Board, other than those necessary to meet specific requirements under the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission and listing standards of the NYSE.

The Committee may consider, among others, the following qualifications for Board membership: (a) the highest personal and professional integrity, (b) demonstrated exceptional ability and judgment, (c) broad experience in business, finance or administration, (d) familiarity with the Company's industry, (e) ability to serve the long-term interests of the Company's stockholders, (f) sufficient time available to devote to the affairs of the Company, (g) ability to provide continuing service to promote stability and continuity in the boardroom and provide the benefit of familiarity and insight into the Company's affairs that directors would accumulate during their tenure, (h) ability to help the Board work as a collective body, (i) diversity (of both background and experience) and (j) experience, areas of expertise, and other factors relative to the overall composition of the Board.

VIII. Process for Identification and Evaluation of Director Candidates

The Committee's process for identifying and evaluating nominees for director, including nominees recommended by stockholders, shall involve (with or without the assistance of a retained search firm) compiling names of potentially eligible candidates, vetting candidates' qualifications, conducting background and reference checks, conducting interviews with candidates and/or others (as schedules permit), meeting to consider and recommend final candidates to the Board and, as appropriate, preparing and presenting to the Board an analysis with regard to particular, recommended candidates.
