Intrusion Wins Editor's Choice for Detection System and Next Gen Zero Trust

PLANO, TX / ACCESSWIRE / June 14, 2022 / Intrusion, Inc. (NASDAQ:INTZ), a leader in cyberattack prevention solutions, including zero-days, was named the winner of two Global InfoSec Awards from Cyber Defense Magazine (CDM), the industry's leading electronic information security magazine. This year marks the 10th anniversary of the prestigious awards, which were presented at this year's RSA Conference.

Intrusion won two awards: Editor's Choice Intrusion Detection System (IDS) and Editor's Choice Next Gen Zero Trust.

Entries were judged on three features: understanding tomorrow's threats in today's environment, cost effectiveness, and innovation that can proactively mitigate risk.

"We scoured the globe looking for cybersecurity innovators that could make a huge difference and potentially help turn the tide against the exponential growth in cybercrime. Intrusion is worthy of these coveted awards and consideration for deployment in your environment," said Yan Ross, Editor of Cyber Defense Magazine.

"Due to the size and quality of our threat intelligence database, we have the unique ability to identify threats that other companies simply can't," said Tony Scott, CEO of Intrusion. "With the increasing sophistication of security breaches, the need for our network solutions is more critical than ever. We are working hard to deliver security solutions that are tested and proven to provide a critical layer of protection from these very real threats facing organizations today."

About Intrusion, Inc.

Intrusion, Inc. is a cybersecurity company based in Plano, Texas. The Company offers its customers access to its exclusive threat intelligence database containing the historical data, known associations, and reputational behavior of over 8.5 billion IP addresses. After years of gathering global internet intelligence and working with government entities, the company released its first commercial product in 2021. Intrusion Shield allows businesses to incorporate a zero trust, reputation-based security solution into their existing infrastructure. Intrusion Shield observes traffic flow and instantly blocks known or unknown malicious connections from entering or exiting a network to help protect against zero-day and ransomware attacks. Incorporating Intrusion Shield into a network elevates an organization's overall security posture by enhancing the performance and decision-making of other solutions in its cybersecurity architecture.
