COUSINS AT A GLANCE

The Preeminent Sun Belt Office REIT

PREMIER SUN BELT LIFESTYLE OFFICE PORTFOLIO

Lifestyle Office has Emerged as a Distinct and Desirable Property Type

LIFESTYLE OFFICE ASSETS

- ✓ New or recently redeveloped properties that command premium rents and enjoy higher occupancy
- ✓ Located in the best markets and submarkets with close proximity to thriving and dynamic neighborhoods
- ✓ Highly-amenitized including on-site retail & food, activated outdoor space, collaboration & meeting space, state-of-the art fitness options with locker rooms
- ✓ Inspired design and efficient systems and floorplates are becoming gating factors for increasingly discerning customers

Companies are recognizing the importance of desirable office space in recruitment, retention and culture

COMMODITY OFFICE ASSETS

- ✗ Older vintage assets with few or no in-building amenities and limited outdoor activation
- ✗ Proximity to single-use office districts with challenging walkability and few post work entertainment options
- ✗ Dated designs as well as inefficient building systems and floorplates with bland common areas
- ✗ Fundamental interior features – low ceiling heights, small windows, etc. – are uneconomic to change or improve through redevelopment
- ✗ Inconvenient and exposed surface parking with limited transit options

Large portions have become obsolete and unleasable – eventually will be redeveloped into another use

“Buildings along the upper tier of the quality spectrum are clearly emerging victorious on a relative basis in a world where tenants are overwhelmingly favoring “high-quality” workplaces as a means of incentivizing employees to return to the office...There seems to be more room for “pent-up” demand in higher quality assets, whereas lower quality assets won’t benefit nearly as much should utilization continue in its current range.”

THEMES

Flight To Quality

- Customers are prioritizing high-quality, well-amenitized and well-located buildings to promote employee collaboration and engagement

Sun Belt Migration

- Sun Belt markets continue to lead the nation in job and population growth<sup>1</sup>

Return To Normal

- Companies are increasing in-office attendance policies with Fortune 100 employers now requiring an average of four days a week in the office<sup>2</sup>

Shrinking Supply

- Record high conversions combined with record low development starts is leading to a shrinking office inventory<sup>3</sup>

BENEFITING FROM POWERFUL OFFICE TRENDS

Flight to Quality is Driving Demand for Newer, Highly-Amenitized Assets

CAUTIONARY STATEMENT REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING INFORMATION

Certain matters contained in this report are “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of the federal securities laws and are subject to uncertainties and risks, as itemized herein. These forward-looking statements include information about possible or assumed future results of the business and our financial condition, liquidity, results of operations, plans, expectations, and objectives. Examples of forward-looking statements in this earnings release and supplemental information include the Company’s guidance and underlying assumptions; projected capital expenditures; industry trends; future occupancy or volume and velocity of leasing activity; and entry into new markets.

Any forward-looking statements are based upon management’s beliefs, assumptions, and expectations of our future performance, taking into account information that is currently available. These beliefs, assumptions, and expectations may change as a result of possible events or factors, not all of which are known. If a change occurs, our business, financial condition, liquidity, and results of operations may vary materially from those expressed in forward-looking statements. Actual results may vary from forward-looking statements due to, but not limited to, the following: the risks and uncertainties related to the impact of changes in general economic and capital market conditions (on an international or national basis or within the markets in which we operate), including changes in inflation, changes in interest rates, supply chain disruptions, labor market disruptions (including changes in unemployment), dislocation and volatility in capital markets, and potential longer-term changes in consumer and customer behavior resulting from the severity and duration of any downturn, adverse conditions or uncertainty in the U.S. or global economy; risks affecting the real estate industry (including, without limitation, the inability to enter into or renew leases on favorable terms and on anticipated schedules); any adverse change in the financial condition or liquidity of one or more of our tenants or borrowers under our real estate debt investments; changes in customer preferences regarding space utilization; changes in customers’ financial condition; the availability, cost, and adequacy of insurance coverage; competition from other developers, investors, owners, and operators of real estate; the failure to achieve anticipated benefits from intended or completed acquisitions, developments, investments, or dispositions; the cost and availability of financing, the effectiveness of any interest rate hedging contracts, and any failure to comply with debt covenants under credit agreements; the effect of common stock, debt, or operating partnership unit issuances; threatened terrorist attacks or sociopolitical unrest such as political instability, civil unrest, armed hostilities, or political activism and the potential impact of the same upon our day-to-day building operations; the immediate and long-term impact of the outbreak of a highly infectious or contagious disease on our and our customers’ financial condition; risks associated with security breaches through cyberattacks, cyber intrusions, or otherwise; risks associated with the adoption and usage of artificial intelligence; changes in senior management, the Board of Directors, or key personnel; the potential liability for existing or future environmental or other applicable regulatory requirements, including the requirements to qualify for taxation as a real estate investment trust; the financial condition and liquidity of, or disputes with, joint venture partners; material changes in dividend rates on common shares or other securities or the ability to pay those dividends; the impact of changes to applicable laws, including the tax laws impacting REITs and the passage of the One Big Beautiful Bill Act, and the impact of newly adopted accounting principles on our accounting policies and on period to period comparison of financial results; risks associated with climate change and severe weather events; and those additional risks and factors discussed in reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) by the Company.

These forward-looking statements are not exhaustive, speak only as of the date of issuance of this report and are not guarantees of future results, performance, or achievements. Additional risk factors that could adversely affect our business and financial performance can be found in Part 1, Item 1A. Risk Factors, of our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2025, and are specifically incorporated by reference herein. The Company does not undertake a duty to update or revise any forward-looking statement, whether as a result of new information, future events, or other matters, except as otherwise required by law.
