RoadSync Customers Can Now Pay with WEX Cards

5/25/2021

PORTLAND, Maine--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- WEX (NYSE: WEX), a leading financial technology service provider, and RoadSync, a digital payment platform for the freight and transportation industry, announced today the addition of WEX's EFS and Fleet One payment solutions (WEX OTR) to RoadSync's digital payments platform, RoadSync Checkout.

By using RoadSync Checkout, the process of paying accessorial and freight handling fees is simplified. With RoadSync, warehouses, distribution centers and lumpers across the U.S. are able to seamlessly accept WEX OTR as a payment. Similarly, heavy truck repair, towing and maintenance shops using RoadSync Checkout can now include WEX OTR payments as an accepted payment type for their roadside and in-shop services.

"Automating payments is really important to our customers when it comes to efficiency and cash flow," says Robin Gregg, CEO, RoadSync. "Partnering with WEX has created a faster, easier payment process for warehouses, repair shops and truck drivers while allowing them to use their preferred payment method."

"We're always looking for more ways to make payments easier and more convenient for our cardholders. The addition of our cards to RoadSync Checkout was a customer request," says Karl Kelley, vice president of merchant services, Global Fleet, WEX. "We listened and now RoadSync customers will have more ways to use WEX OTR while maintaining the same level of security and control they count on."
